HELWEG NEWLAND SERIES OF LUNCHEONS ARE CHARMING AFFAIRS

Mrs. Paul Helweg and Mrs. Maurice J. Newland were joint hostesses at a series of three charming one o'clock luncheons this week given at the beautiful new home of the former on Riverside Drive in Laurelwood.

Lovely bouquets of yellow Barbee chrysanthemums and Tallman roses were used about the room, while the serving tables were centered with Jack-o-lantern containers holding Mexican sunflowers and marigolds.

The first of the series was the lovely one o'clock luncheon given Wednesday for a group of eight guests, who spent the afternoon hours doing sewing for the American Red Cross. The luncheon table was centered with a low arrangement of large dahlias floating in a white bowl and flanked by bird figurines holding tall white tapers. The table was covered by a very lovely lace cloth.

On Thursday Mrs. Helweg and Mrs. Newland entertained at the second of the series of one o'clock luncheons, after which seven tables of contract bridge were in play. Defense savings stamps were given as high and second high score prizes and were won by Mrs. H. H. Turner and Mrs. T. G. Watson. Assisting the hostesses in serving were Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker and Mrs. Clair K. Allen.

Friday, Mrs. Helweg and Mrs. Newland entertained at their third one o'clock luncheon, which was followed by contract bridge played by twenty-eight guests, assisting the hostesses in serving were Mrs. R. D. Coen, Mrs. Marie Morgan, Defense savings stamps, high and second high score prizes were won by Mrs. D. H. Morgan and Miss Helen Casey.

Tailman roses were used about the room for the occasion, while the refreshment table was decorated in early chrysanthemums.

Mrs. William Bell presided at the coffee urn. The hostess committee serving refreshments included Mrs. Grant H. Moore, Mrs. G. C. Finlay, Mrs. Gay Mowery, Mrs. E. L. Crittenden and Mrs. J. C. McCallister.

Mrs. O. R. Hess entertained her bridge club at a charming one o'clock luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her beautiful home in Laurelwood. Chrysanthemums were used in a beautiful arrangement with flat water-lily candles on the serving table, while large bouquets were attractively arranged about the room.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Stewart Cooper, Mrs. A. C. Anderson and Miss Margaret Baum, guests, and Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. Marshall Pengra, Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and the hostess, Mrs. Hess.

High score for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Pengra.
