MISS HELEN CASEY TO PRESENT PLAY FOR WOMAN'S CLUB NOV. 4

The public has been cordially invited to attend the Roseburg Woman's club annual fall tea at two o'clock next Tuesday afternoon, November 4, at the clubhouse, at which time Miss Helen Casey will present the one-act comedy, "The Dinner." Assisting Miss Casey will be Mrs. Adrian Bowen and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter with Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen as stage manager and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly in charge of decorations for the play.

Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president, will give the address of welcome and Mrs. W. M. Campbell will announce the play. Mrs. Homer Grow will introduce special musical numbers for the occasion and Mrs. Frank Brown will be general chairman of the tea.

This annual benefit play and tea is open to anyone desiring to attend.

PAST GUARDIANS NIGHT IS OBSERVED

Lilac Circle No. 49, Neighbors of Woodcraft, held a very enjoyable Past Guardians night Monday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall. Guardian Neighbor Ethel Beaver presented a corsage to the following past guardian neighbors: Winnie Hawn, Prudie Hinderger, Bertha Taylor, Hattie Neal, Lora Darby, Mildred Krogel, Tillie I. Johnson, Iva Taylor, Lydia Hooper, Cynthia Germond and Paul Beaver.

Slips of paper deciding the officers of the evening were passed and the past guardians then took charge with Cynthia Germond, as G. N.; Tillie I. Johnson, as clerk; Iva Taylor, advisor; Bertha Taylor, magician; Hattie Neal, P. G. N.; Mildred Krogel, captain of guards; Lydia Hooper, flag bearer; Lora Darby, banker; Winnie Hawn, correspondent; Prudie Hinderger, manager; and Paul Beaver, attendant.

An interesting program was presented and included two songs, "Please Come Back to Me," and "All Out for Defense," and two readings by Barbara Orr, followed by a clown dance by the Perkins twins, accompanied by Ruth Snoddy.

Hallowe'en refreshments were served at the close of the program by Martha Erskine, chairman, assisted by Lillie Lohr and Augusta Moran.

GRANGE HAS FINE MEETING

Warning to mothers: WORMS CAN CAUSE TROUBLE

Learn the truth! Anybody, anywhere, can have roundworms. And they can cause great distress inside your child without your even knowing what is wrong. Many pale, nervous, underweight children have bowel worms. Other innocent-looking warning signs are uneasy stomach, flatulence, itchy seat, nose-picking. Don't take chances with roundworms! Get Jayne's Vermifuge today! It is America's best known proprietary worm medicine—used by millions, for over a century. Jayne's expels stubborn roundworms, yet acts gently. If there are no worms, it sets just as a mild laxative. Insist on Jayne's Vermifuge.

SECOND SHOWING OF CATHOLIC ENTERTAINMENT TO BE HELD THIS EVENING

The second showing of the Catholic benefit entertainment will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at St. Joseph's parish hall on North Kane street.

The entertainment was presented for the first time last evening and was enjoyed by a very large number of people who crowded into the hall. Every number on the program was enthusiastically received by the audience.

Father William Coughlan announced the following program: Group of three comic songs by Miss Helen Casey, accompanied by Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, pianist, and Harry Butler, violinist; two dance numbers by the pupils of St. Joseph's school, under the direction of Mrs. Paul Jenkins; violin solo, "Meditation" by Harry Butler; pantomime under the direction of Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, and the one-act play, "The Wedding," under the direction of Miss Helen Casey.

The cast, which was headed by Miss Casey, was highly complimented for the splendid presentation of the comedy. Members taking part in the play with Miss Casey included: Mrs. Harris Ellsworth and two daughters, Mary Margaret and Jane, Mrs. T. H. Noss and daughter and son Genevieve and John, Coletta Langenberg, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dolan, George Gutfleisch, Mrs. Hedwig Watzig, C. M. O'Malley and son, Michael, Layton Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Tone Shukle, Barney Walsh and Ray Carpenter.

The entertainment was followed by the play cast selling cider and doughnuts.

HARVEST FESTIVAL PLANNED FOR SATURDAY

The Evergreen grange harvest festival and carnival will be an interesting affair at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, November 1st, to be held at the hall. The cedar chest and contents, now on display at Parslow's, will be given away during the evening. The public is cordially invited to be present.
