

Navy Information Service Assigned To C. V. Stanton

At the suggestion of Secretary of Navy Knox, Charles V. Stanton, city editor of the Roseburg News-Review, has been made navy editor, to help the navy in giving ambitious local young men information about the opportunities the "two-ocean" navy offers them for technical training and advancement as they serve their country in its emergency.

Beginning this week, the navy plans for a limited time to accept new qualified men for training. These men will be sent to one of four naval training stations and may have a chance to go to a navy trade school even before assignment to the fleet. During this period they will be given regular navy pay and the navy's free schooling is valued at hundreds of dollars.

As navy editor, Mr. Stanton has just received from Washington a supply of free illustrated booklets for all men interested and, in addition, will welcome inquiries from young men who wish to look into the new and greater opportunities the navy now offers for training for future civilian careers as they serve their country now in its emergency.

Closing in on the circular city of Moscow, German troops have this cluster of theaters, museums, public buildings and vital war factories as the object of their greatest assault of the current campaign. Heart of Moscow is the Kremlin, walled city within a city, from which radiate the streets of the capital, the communication lines of the nation and the Red arteries of the vast Soviet Union.

Tall, Dark and Fearsome Defenders of London

Crews at sunset man giant guns of London's anti-aircraft which point death to the sky for bombing marauders. Raids over the capital have been few and far between the last few months with London reportedly now girded with such nests, capable of throwing up an almost impenetrable wall of steel.

High School Cast Dates 'The Valiant'

"The Valiant," a powerful one-act drama by Hall and Middlemass, is one of the plays to be presented at Roseburg senior high school gym Monday, November 3, at 8:15 p. m., as a part of the first play festival, successor to the 14-Jinx. It concerns the last few minutes of life of a condemned criminal, who proves himself a man of courage.

The cast of the play, which is directed by Delmar Ramsdell, includes the following high school faculty members: James Dyke, the condemned criminal; L. Hatt; Father Daly, prison chaplain; C. H. Beard; Warden Holt; L. Riley; Josephine Paris; Miss Phoebe Hawthorne; the attendant; A. Laws; the guard; B. Mellis.

Other plays on the program are "Sparky," directed by Miss Helen Casey, and "The Happy Journey to Trenton and Camden," directed by Miss Alice Ueland. Novelty acts between plays complete the entertainment, of which the proceeds are to be used for student activities.
