There is a secret joy in do-ing service for others. Too often we miss the hidden meat, the concealed blessing. the inward happiness, because we neglect Christian service. When the disciples asked him on one eccasion about food, he said, "I have meat to eat that ye know not of." Jesus had been talking with a woman of Samaria. She belonged to a despised race. The Jews had no dealings with the Samari-tans. Jesus broke down the barriers. He was not prejudiced against race, classes, or creeds. He loved everybody. He served all who were in need. This hidden meat that God gives us is found only when one is in the path of duty. It is found when we are like Christ, going about do-ing good. Christ testified He witnessed. He told the Samari tan about the living water about God; about His eternal presence. Let us take to heart the words of the hymn:

O Master let me walk with Thee. In lowly paths of service free Tell me Thy secret; help me
