POET'S CORNER

ROSEBURG

Roseburg in Oregon
Safely nesting in the hills
Bring to my heart a song—
My whole being thrills.

Seek you may, far and wide
To find a land of Peace;
At last in Roseburg you'll decide
And all your searching cease.

The warm rain so gently falling,
And oh, to see the glorious trees!
All nature unto us is calling
So softly, with each breeze.

Where rivers roll unto the sea
With fish and fowl and deer—
Travel worn though we're here,
Can thank God that He's here.

—Albert E. Jarvis.
