Mrs. George Kohlhaugen

Mrs. George Kohlhaugen was the guest of honor at the annual homecoming of Roseburg chapter of Eastern Star Thursday evening at the Masonic temple, when she celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the date she was worthy matron of the chapter. Mrs. Kohlhaugen and her sister, the late Frances Howell, are charter members of the chapter. Miss Howell observed her fiftieth anniversary in 1938. Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, worthy matron, graciously presided.

Of special interest was the gown worn by Mrs. Kohlhaugen, which was fashioned of red plush, which she wore fifty years ago as worthy matron and is still in perfect condition. The gown's design is in fashion again this year. A special gift was given to Mrs. Kohlhaugen, who very graciously responded with a short talk.

Other past matrons and past patrons of Roseburg chapter honored with gifts and a special drill were: Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. R. D. Williams, Mrs. P. T. Bubart, Mrs. J. E. Runyan, Mrs. Frances Lintott, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Albert Micelli, Mrs. C.

G. Ferrier, Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Stony Cawfield, J. D. Osborn and H. H. Turner. Mrs. Ed Punaska, of Coos Junction, past matron of the Deering, Nebraska chapter, was among those honored.

The floral drill was presented by Mrs. J. P. Molschenbacher. Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Mrs. A. J. Ellison and Mrs. R. E. Sippell. Mrs. Earl Wiley sang two solos and Mrs. Frances Lintott played piano numbers, after which Dr. B. R. Shoemaker showed the beautiful colored films, which he took on a trip to Mexico.

Beautiful fall flowers were used to decorate the banquet tables and refreshments were served by Mrs. L. A. Ellard and Mrs. Clair K. Allen, joint chairmen. Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. D. B. Bu bar, Mrs. E. A. Beiton, Mrs. E. A. Pettie, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. C. B. Wade and Mr. and Mrs. George Smith.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McKay and great-granddaughter, Margaret Ellen Phillips, of Eugene.

About two hundred and fifty relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McKay met in the auditorium of the Wilbur high school Sunday, November 2, 1941, to honor them on their golden wedding anniversary.

At one o'clock a basket dinner was enjoyed. The long tables were covered with white linen cloths and were decorated with golden-colored chrysanthemums. At a beautifully appointed table with a centerpiece of Talisman roses and fern flanked by yellow tulips in crystal holders and low bowls of yellow chrysanthemums, was seated the bride and bridegroom and eleven guests who were present at the wedding fifty years ago. Additional guests at the table included: Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Edwards. Guests at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. McKay and attending the golden wedding celebration included: Mr. and Mrs. Narcisse LaRaut, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. William Deardorff, of Oakland; Mrs. Frances Grubbe, of Seattle; Mrs. O. C. Brown, of Dixonville; Miss Mary Wells, of Elkton; John Maupin and Lloyd Pinkston, of Oakland; R. W. Marsters, of Roseburg, and Hugh Ellison, of Portland.

A wedding cake decorated in yellow and white was cut by Mrs. McKay and served to all of the guests present.

After the dinner, Dr. Charles A. Edwards gave a short talk and on behalf of the guests presented a beautiful gift to Mr. and Mrs. McKay. Many individual gifts were also presented to the honored couple, who responded with short talks expressing their appreciation for the many tokens of respect from their relatives and friends.

A program followed and included: vocal solos, "The Bells of St. Mary's" and "Silver Threads Among the Gold," by Frank Grubbe; vocal duet, "When You and I Were Young Maggie" and "When Honey Sings Those Old Time Tunes," by Mrs. H. D. McKay and Mrs. Clifford McKay. The songs were accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Kenneth Barneburg.

The auditorium was attractively decorated with huge baskets of chrysanthemums and much credit is due Mrs. O. C. Brown, general chairman of the affair, for the successful manner in which the celebration was carried out. She was assisted by relatives and friends of the honored couple.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McKay belong to pioneer families of Douglas county. The latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zeba Dimmick, came to Kellogg, Oregon, in 1833. Her mother was born in Ireland in 1831 and died in 1900. Her father was born Oct. 5, 1816, Richmond, Ohio, died in 1878. The family lived for many years in Wilbur, where their children were educated at the Wilbur academy. Mrs. McKay, nee Mary Dimmick, was born January 31st, 1869, at Elkton, Ore. Mr. McKay was born January 3, 1864, at Newport, Tenn., and came to Oregon in October, 1884, locating at Wilbur. He was married to Mary Dimmick at Wilbur, November 1, 1891. Mr. McKay has engaged in farming, operated a store at Wilbur and also acted as deputy county assessor for 17 years. They have three children, Clifford and Harold, of Roseburg, and Vera McKay Lehmann, of Great Falls, Montana. They have six grandchildren: Delwin Lehmann, of Tacoma; Leitha Lehmann, of Great Falls, Montana; Floyd McKay and Mrs. Everett Phillips, of Eugene, and Delwin and Mary Ellen McKay, of Roseburg. They have one great-grandchild, Margaret Ellen Phillips, of Eugene. The entire family, with the exception of the granddaughter, Leitha Lehmann, were able to enjoy this happy occasion with their relatives and many friends.

This esteemed couple have always been among those who were foremost in the upbuilding of their community and have a host of friends. They have long been members of the Methodist church and for more than 50 years, Mr. McKay has been a member of the Masonic lodge of Oakland.

Miss Alta LaRaut had charge of the guest book. Out of the county guests present included: Mrs. Frances Grubbe, of Seattle; Mrs. Vida Matthews Denton, of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lehmann, of Great Falls, Montana; Mr. and Mrs. Delwin Lehmann, of Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ellison, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McKay, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Narcisse LaRaut and Stephen LaRaut, of Salem; Mrs. Blanche McCulloch, of Bakersfield, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Hannibal Smith, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Byard Reed, Mrs. Florence Mills and Mrs. Mabel McNeue, of Cottage Grove.
