CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW IS SUCCESSFUL AND ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The Roseburg Woman's club sponsored an informal chrysanthemum exhibit Saturday from ten in the morning until nine-thirty o'clock at night. The exhibit proved to be unusually successful and enjoyable and the club members have expressed their appreciation to the chrysanthemum growers in this city for their response to an appeal to exhibit their flowers. Mrs. W. Bunch, who resides near Elkton, brought a very fine selection of chrysanthemums to the show. Bouquets were sold and a silver offering was taken.

The exhibit included chrysanthemums of varieties too numerous to name. There were exhibits of the tiniest chrysanthemums to the largest white Turner displayed by H. B. Church and the flowering "Big Child" a huge yellow "mum" grown by Mrs. George Cluck. Large Turners were displayed by Mrs. Howard Crook. Mrs. John William Robertson, Dr. G. C. Finlay (the latter also displaying a number of single and pin-cushion types of flowers as well), and Mrs. R. W. Marsters.

Exhibitors signing cards for the show included: Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., D. E. Hennigh, Dr. G. C. Finlay, Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mrs. Howard V. Crook, Miss Jane Wharton, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gulden, Mrs. Carl E. Roslund, Mrs. Feikert, Mrs. W. W. Bunch, of Elkton, Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, Mrs. William Muir, Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. John Whelan, Miss Gertrude Dolan, Mrs. John William Robertson, Mrs. Lois Wesley, W. M. Campbell, H. B. Church, Mrs. Willis Meyers, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. Milt Ollivant, Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and others, who displayed exhibits, but did not register their names.

Mrs. R. W. Marsters and Mrs. G. V. Wimberly had charge of the delightful all-day affair and were assisted by Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. Mark L. Underwood, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., and Mrs. Fredrick J. Porter.

Roseburg residents have always shown such keen interest in their gardens, that the Roseburg Woman's club decided this year to sponsor exhibits featuring special types of flowers of interest to the greatest number of people. The next flower show to be sponsored by the club will be the camellia exhibit to be held in the spring. All persons growing camellias are invited to exhibit their blooms at this show. The committee in charge of the affair hopes to have as many fine varieties of camellias on display as the "mum" show exhibited Saturday.

POLLYANNA CLUB HAS FINE PARTY

MYRTLE CREEK, Nov. 4.—The Pollyanna club party, held last Friday afternoon in the Methodist church basement, the usual meeting place, was a decided success. The club held open house for all the women of the community. Many former members were present and quite a number of women new to the city of Myrtle Creek. After the short business meeting was over, those who came in costume competed for the prizes which the three grocers and the druggists of the city had donated. The judges found it quite a difficult task to choose the best in each class, as many and varied were the excellent costumes worn. However, Mrs. Margaret Way was given the prize for the best old fashioned gown; May Shirliff the one for the cutest little girl; and Lolah Fitzpatrick for the gayest and best Halloween costume, and Lena Jackson won a prize for the most unique one. She came as a Japanese Geisha girl, and was most charming with gay chrysanthemums in her hair.

Mrs. George Godfrey, a former member, now residing in Honolulu, sent as her proxy, a lovely, living Hawaiian dancing girl, grass skirt and all. Of course, she had to be wound up to make her go, but her presence was greatly enjoyed. The tables were decorated with autumn leaves, tiny pumpkins, and fall fruits. Many lovely bouquets of autumn flowers decorated the room. The committee in charge of refreshments served to over forty-two members and guests.
