Louis to Battle Buddy Baer for 0 At Navy Benefit

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis has been paid princely sums for fighting, but his wage scale is skidding to the vanishing point. Within a few weeks he will be inducted into the army to fight, if necessary, for $21 a month and now he has agreed to fight for the navy for nothing.

A 15-round title bout between the champion and Buddy Baer, the big Californian he beat in six rounds last spring, was announced last night for January 9 in Madison Square garden.

The profits will go to the New York auxiliary of the navy relief society and Louis will receive nothing more than his expenses for staking his heavyweight crown, the most valuable bauble in sports.

But Ancil Hoffman, Baer's manager, said in Sacramento, Calif., that Buddy would receive the customary challenger's percentage after taxes and a 10 per cent cut for the navy had been taken off the top. In the past Louis' challengers have received from 12 1/2 to 20 per cent.

In Army—Word has been received here that Clair Shirey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shirey, of Eugene, formerly of this city, has joined the army and is now a private, battery B 51st Coast artillery Bn., at Camp Callan, Calif.

Rich Merchant Held in Shooting of Legion Head

STOCKTON, Calif., Nov. 13.—
(AP)—Maurice Zuckerman, 60, wealthy Los Angeles and Stockton commission merchant, was accused today of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. The charge was an aftermath of the Armistice day shooting of a Stockton American Legion leader in a cocktail bar.

Justice of the peace George F. Buck set bail at 50,000 cash or $100,000 bond, and selected November 24 for a preliminary hearing.

Victim in the shooting was Otto Dander, 40, past commander of the Stockton Legion post, and leader of the Armistice day parade. Surgeons gave him an even chance to recover from a pistol bullet wound in the abdomen.

The shooting occurred in a bar where Dander had gone with his wife, brother and sister-in-law to celebrate. Dander's wife signed the complaint against Zuckerman.

Leo Turner Knocks Out Wagner in Second Round

SALEM, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Leo Turner of Portland spotted Keller Wagner, Salem, 12 pounds, and scored a technical knockout in the second round of a boxing bout last night. Turner weighed 158 1/2 pounds, Wagner 170.

In one preliminary Dave Traglio of Salem, 145 pounds, decisioned Harry Fowler, Roseburg, 145, in four rounds.
