A skating party is planned for Nov. 19.

It was voted to have one meeting a month on the second Wednesday.

After the business meeting the group went to the James Conn home for the remainder of the evening, where games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Those present included Grant Bonebrake, Dorothy Felt, Jean Petrequin, Dean Eckes, Delmer and Wilmer Conn, guests, and Vac Bursik, Charlene and Richard Stark, Ruth, Ruby, Elaine, Lillian and Ivan Matthews, Amy Kruse, Ray Doerner, Roberta Taylor, Henry Krohn, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James Conn.

W. S. OF C. S. HAS INTERESTING MEETING

CANYONVILLE, Nov. 17.—The Women's Society of Christian Service met at the home of Mrs. Fred W. Cooper Thursday for an all-day meeting, for the purpose of sewing on aprons and tea towels for the annual bazaar, which is to be given in the near future.

Twelve persons enjoyed the potluck luncheon at noon. They were the Rev. and Mrs. James Wilkins of Myrtle Creek, Mrs. W. R. Allen, Mrs. Odum Ford, Mrs. Barbara Hopkins, Mrs. Kenneth Hopkins, Mrs. Norman Ashcraft, Mrs. Emmett Moyer, Mrs. W. C. Pelham, the Reverend and Mrs. J. C. Groat of Washington state and the hostess.

In the afternoon a regular meeting was held, with Mrs. Cooper presiding over the session. Roll call was answered by each member giving a verse from the Bible beginning with A. The next meeting will be the 27th of November.

SUNSHINE CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING

AZALEA, Nov. 17.—Mrs. John Jantzer was hostess for the Sunshine club at her home Thursday afternoon.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in visiting and fancy work. A short business meeting was held.

The serving table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth, and the centerpiece was an attractive bouquet of chrysanthemums. The Thanksgiving motif was also used.

Three new members, Mrs. Stanley Jantzer, Mrs. Cora Chadwick and Mrs. Herbert Salvage, were welcomed into the club.

At the usual tea hour delicious refreshments were served to Mrs. Herbert Salvage, Mrs. Harry Cooke, Mrs. Ora Condray, Mrs. John Oldenburg, Mrs. Cora Chadwick, Mrs. Camp Johns, Mrs. Ben Phelps, Mrs. Neuman, Mrs. William Jantzer, Mrs. Jack Fisher, Mrs. Henry Gaedecke, Mrs. Frankie Schroeder, Mrs. John Feldmiller, Mrs. Stanley Jantzer, Mrs. Halbert Booth, Mrs. D. H. Clare, Mrs. Bert Springstead, Mrs. Rollin Johns, and the hostess, Mrs. Jantzer.

The next meeting will be Dec. 4th at the home of Mrs. John Feldmiller. The election of officers will be held at this meeting.

ROTARIANS AND ROTARY ANNS ENJOY MEETING

The Roseburg Rotarians and Rotary Anns enjoyed their November social meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker on Lane street Thursday evening.

Following an enjoyable potluck dinner served in the basement of the attractive home, the ladies adjourned to the living room and a pleasant hour of games and contests were enjoyed, while the Rotarians were engaged in a marksmanship contest in the basement. Rifle teams led by John Barney and Bruce Yeager were awarded prizes for marksmanship. Mr. Hoon was introduced as a new member of the club by Dexter Rice.

Later in the evening the groups gathered together for an hour of songs led by John Barney and accompanied by Mrs. Frances Lintott at the piano and W. E. Ott on the violin. Readings by Miss M. Page and Mrs. Vernon Orr were greatly enjoyed by all. The club voted to attend the church services at the Christian church Sunday evening, November 16. The committee assisting Mrs. Shoemaker included Mrs. W. J. Olmscheid, Mrs. Victor J. Micelli and Mrs. Earl Wiley.

ARCHERY CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The first meeting of the fall season of the Umpqua Archery club was held at Umpqua, Nov. 13. New officers, which were elected for the coming year were: President, Cal Henry; 1st vice-president, Bob Mode; 2nd vice-president, Alton Hebard; secretary and treasurer, Gertrude Hebard. It was decided to enter three teams, two men's and one women's, in the Olympic Bowman league, which starts after the first of the year. This league is composed of archery clubs all over the United States and in which the Umpqua archers competed last year and made a very good showing. This year is looked forward to with great anticipation and enthusiasm of every member. A clean-up day was held on Sunday, Nov. 16, with a potluck supper in the evening.
