HOMECOMING IS LARGE AFFAIR

GLENDALF, Nov. 18.—The Eastern Stars were hostesses Tuesday evening at a homecoming for the past matrons and past patrons. Mrs. Elsie Meissner, worthy matron assisted by the officers and members exemplified a very beautiful floral degree on the past matron and past patrons of this chapter and on the past officers, who were guests. These included Mrs. R. C. Powell, a visitor from the Oakland chapter, who was presented with the Oakland chapter; M. F. Nye, a past patron from a chapter in Idaho. After rendering the degree all present marched into the dining room, where dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. R. D. Sorrells, Mrs. M. F. Nye, Mrs. L. C. Normoyle, Mrs. H. P. Reed, and Mrs. George Reynolds.

The tables were beautifully decorated with fall flowers, little flags and red, white and blue tapers. Each honored guest was decorated with a flower and each was presented with a small gavel tied with ribbon in the colors of the order. The place cards were hand-made booklets, on the pages of which were printed the staff of officers, of each honored guest, together with the list of candidates initiated. At the table each guest was asked to speak and to tell of the highlights in his or her administration.

The out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McKeown, of North Bend, and Mrs. J. W. Carlson of Klamath Falls.

OPEN HOUSE IS SPONSORED AT SCHOOL

RIDDLE, Nov. 18.—In observance of American Education week the teachers of the Riddle school held open house, Friday Nov. 14, inviting the parents and friends of the pupils to spend the day at school. A large number accepted the invitation. At noon a luncheon, prepared by Christine Townsend, cook of the hot lunch project, assisted by Miss Davis and the girls of the Home Ec. class and Lela Ball, was served to the parents, about thirty-five being seated at the table. Short talks were given by Prof. Lundberg and the superintendent of the hot lunch project who was present from Roseburg. In addition to the parents luncheon, eighty school children were served. In the afternoon guests came and the class rooms were visited until 2:30 when the crowd repaired to the gym where the following program was presented.
