3 BIG PRIZES

1st Prize - $15.00
2nd Prize - $7.00
3rd Prize - $3.00

RULES

RULES

- Contest is open to everyone except the employees and their families of either the News-Review or Radio Station KRRR.
- Contestants may enter as many times as they wish BUT only one entry can be made at each of the participating merchants. In case of a violation of this rule all entries of the person in question will be discarded.
- No entries will be accepted after 4 p. m. Friday, November 28.
- In case of ties for either of the three prizes the prize will be divided between the tying entries.
- Decisions of the judges must be accepted as final.
- Winners will be announced in the News-Review the Monday following the games.
- ABSOLUTELY no purchase is required to enter. Entry blanks can be secured FREE at the merchants participating in the contest.

OBJECT

The winners of this contest will be those that can forecast most skillfully and accurately the score of the Oregon State-University of Oregon, Stanford-California, and Washington-Southern California football games, November 29. You DO NOT simply forecast the final score, but rather the score of each game by quarters, that is, what will the score of the games be in the first quarter, the second quarter, the third quarter, and the fourth quarter.

WHERE YOU CAN ENTER

Entry blanks for this contest can be had at any of the merchants whose advertisements appear on this page. The deadline for entry will be 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Friday, November 28. You can submit as many entries as you wish, BUT only one entry at each store.

JUDGING

Entries will be examined and judged by the staff of the Roseburg News-Review. No member of the staff is eligible for entry.
