Numerous Turkey Dinners Are Enjoyed Here Thanksgiving Day

Among the many turkey dinners and gatherings enjoyed here Thanksgiving day were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard and daughter, Miss Charlotte and Mrs. Dillard's mother, Mrs. M. E. Dillard, as their guest for Thanksgiving dinner and the day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly entertained their respective mothers, Mrs. Ira Wimberly and Mrs. J. A. Wood, at a Thanksgiving dinner at their attractive home, "Pine Ridge."

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Ware entertained at a lovely two o'clock turkey dinner at their home, having as their guests: the latter's son, Donald Hall, student at Oregon State college; her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Kimball and small son, Gerald Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Olson and son, Frank.

Superintendent and Mrs. W. M. Campbell entertained at a very charming one o'clock turkey dinner at their lovely home on South Main street Thanksgiving day. The Thanksgiving motif was beautifully carried out on the table and about the rooms, while a large bowl of colorful fall fruits and tall lighted tapers added to the table's attractiveness. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Brand and daughter, Barbara, and son, Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Grow, Miss Elizabeth Campbell of Independence, Ore., McAfee Campbell and the host and hostess, Superintendent and Mrs. W. M. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Nelson and sons, Marshall and Gordon, entertained at a lovely two-thirty o'clock turkey dinner at their home on South Stephens street Thanksgiving day, having as their guests: Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hampton and daughter, Avis, and son, Merle.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Thompson and daughter, Judy and Janney, entertained at a charming two o'clock turkey dinner at their home on East Oak street Thanksgiving day. Chrysanthemums and colorful Thanksgiving favors decorated the two serving tables. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Powell and sons, Dick and David, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Helweg and daughters, Shirley and Paula, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Judy and Janney. Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant afternoon hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly and small daughter, Myra, entertained as guests for Thanksgiving dinner and the weekend: Mr. Kelley's mother, sister and uncle, Mrs. E. Kelly, Miss Marjorie Kelly and Fred Kelly, all of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Judd had as Thanksgiving dinner guests: their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Judd, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., and children, Judd and Evangeline.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cloake entertained at a delightful one-thirty o'clock turkey dinner at their home on South Stephens having as their guests: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor, of Cottage Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Gawler.

Mrs. I. M. Robinson entertained at a very delightful two o'clock turkey dinner at her home at 114 West Lane street for the members of her family. A horn of plenty, chrysanthemums and autumn leaves graced the beautifully appointed table. Covers were placed for Mrs. Robinson, hostess, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robinson and children, Dorothy and John; her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bannister, of Waldport, their two sons, Keith and Robert, students at University of Oregon; Mrs. Keith Bannister, of Eugene, and Miss Emma Jane Smith, of Eugene. Lovely Thanksgiving gifts were presented to Mrs. Robinson, who has been ill for the last several months. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Earl Robinson, is here assisting in her care.

A lovely Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed Thursday at the home of Mrs. S. J. Black, who had the following members of her family present for the occasion: her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stephenson and their son, Woodley; her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Harris and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Allen Moore and small daughter, Judith.

her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Duncan, at a very delightful turkey dinner at six o'clock at her home on Hamilton street Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Williams and daughter, Julianne, and son, Peter, entertained as their Thanksgiving dinner guests and for the week-end, Mr. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Williams, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kronke and daughter, Karen, entertained at a very lovely one o'clock turkey dinner at their home on Winchester street. Chrysanthemums formed a pretty motif for the occasion. Those enjoying the occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Kronke and Karen included: Mrs. Adrian Bloom and daughter, Norma Jean, of Albany, Calif.; Mrs. Maurice Conley and son, Gordon, Homer Pike and daughter, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kronke, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kronke and daughter, Betty, and George Weber.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Weber and son, Maurice, Jr., entertained at a delightful two o'clock turkey dinner at their home. Yellow and white chrysanthemums formed an attractive motif for the table. Covers were placed for G. A. Bonebrake, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Oden, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Oden and daughter, Betty Lou, Frank Oden, Bob Hudzik and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Weber and son, Maurice.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Knight entertained their family at a very enjoyable one o'clock turkey dinner Thanksgiving day at their home on West First street. Covers were placed for their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Houser and sons, Rodney and Douglas, of Eugene; their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Watson, of Marshfield, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and son, Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Pargeter entertained at a very enjoyable five o'clock turkey dinner at their beautiful home on Claire street Thanksgiving day. The holiday motif and chrysanthemums were used to decorate the table. Covers were placed for Miss Virginia Gilmour, Miss Jean Norton and Miss Joanne Gordon, all members of Alpha Xi Delta sorority on the University of Oregon campus; Mrs. Rose Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Martin, of Puyallup, Wash., and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Pargeter.

POETS CORNER

THE ART OF HOLDING STILL

STELLA SPENCER
One day I heard a chance remark

That gave me quite a thrill—
It said we'd save much sadness
If we would just hold still.

We rave and rant and worry—
We give opinions loud—
We chase the mighty dollar—
We see the darkest cloud.

Our nervous system is upset,
Our disposition nil,
We haven't learned the lesson—
The art of holding still.

When we can take life's buffets
Relaxed—forget self will,
Then we have learned life's lesson
The art of holding still.
