Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bean

Miss Jean Eleanor Myers, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Myers, became the bride of Victor Bean, of La Grande, Ore., son of Mrs. J. A. Kofford, of Union, Ore., at a very beautiful and impressive ceremony at ten o'clock Wednesday morning, December 3rd, at the home of the bride's parents on the South Umpqua river. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Roseburg, performed the impressive wedding ceremony in the presence of close friends and relatives of the couple.

An improvised altar was arranged before the attractive fireplace. A round mirror over the fireplace was encircled with sprays of laurel, which also were used along the mantle. White satin bows and streamers were arranged on the mantle and on the candlelabra, each holding fourteen lighted white tapers). Baskets of gorgeous white chrysanthemums completed the setting. The decorations were in charge of Mrs. Scott Williams and Mrs. Clyde Carstens.

The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Carstens for the bridal party to enter the living room, and at the close of the ceremony played Mendelssohn's recessional march, after which she accompanied Mrs. Grant Osborn, who very charmingly sang, "I Love You Truly." During the reception, Mrs. Carstens played incidental music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a brown two-piece dress fashioned with a shirred bodice and flare skirt. Her corsage was of red roses and white button chrysanthemums. Miss Genevieve Hargis, of Roseburg, was maid of honor, and wore a green frock trimmed in gold nail-heads. Her corsage was of chrysanthemums. A. D. Geddes, of La Grande, was best man for his brother-in-law.

The bride's mother wore a light-weight wool dress of Eleanor blue with a corsage of pink and white carnations. Her two grandmothers, Mrs. George Campbell, wore a black crepe dress with a cyclmen corsage, and Mrs. A. B. Myers wore a dark blue dress with a chrysanthemum corsage. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. J. A. Kofford, wore a black dress and a corsage of roses.

Miss Athalie Taylor had charge of receiving the guests and Mrs. A. B. Taylor was in charge of the dining room. Mrs. Scott Williams had charge of the guest book and Miss Carolyn Hudson, of Eugene, had charge of the many beautiful wedding gifts.

A buffet luncheon was served, at which time the beautiful tiered white wedding cake, topped by a miniature bridal couple, was cut by both the bride and bridegroom and was served by Mrs. C. P. Snoddy. Mrs. J. D. Osborn poured.

The buffet table was covered by a beautiful lace cloth and centered by a flat crystal plate holding floating white chrysanthemums flanked by crystal holders and tall white tapers.

Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kofford of Union, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Geddes of La Grande, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. James S. Campbell and son, George Robert, of Bremerton, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffmeister, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carstens and daughter, Jacquelynn, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor and daughter Athalie, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan H. Lander, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Myers, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Snoddy and daughter, Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hargis, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rice, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Morris H. Roach and daughter, Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Claypool, Miss Genevieve Hargis, Gene Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Myers and daughter, Marilyn, Clarence Myers, Nancy Roberts, Mrs. George Campbell, Mrs. A. B. Myers, Mrs. Minerva Smith and Mrs. Flossie Campbell.

Both the bride and bridegroom are well known in Roseburg. The bride was graduated from Roseburg high school in 1941 and is a popular member of the younger set here. She has been attending Eugene Beauty college and plans to complete the course at La Grande. Mr. Bean was formerly in business in Roseburg, later working for the Safeway company store on Stephens street and is now with the Union Pacific Railroad company in La Grande, Ore., where they will make their home, following a wedding trip to points in northern Washington.

KOHLHAGEN-PAGE DESSERT-SUPPER GIVEN FOR PAST MATRONS CLUB

Paradise tree blooms, blue candles, gorgeous hand-painted china in blue, with matching napkins formed an unusually beautiful table for the seven-thirty o'clock dessert-supper given by Mrs. George Kohlhagen and Miss Margaret Page Monday evening, when they entertained the Past Matrons club of Roseburg chapter of Eastern Star at the attractive Kohlhagen home on South Jackson street.

The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. [illegible]. Others present included: Mrs. R. D. Williams, president; Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. V. J. Micelli, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. J. E. Runyan, Mrs. Walter Hercher, Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, Mrs. C. G. Ferrier, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. A. E. Elliott, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Guy Cordon, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Frances Lintott and Mrs. H. G. Rulifson.

New officers elected included: President, Mrs. V. J. Micelli; vice-president, Mrs. R. L. Whipple; treasurer, Miss Margaret Page, and secretary, Mrs. William Bell.

Plans were made for welfare work to be done by the club and Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Virden were appointed to have charge of the new year books. The members brought Christmas donations to the meeting and these will be distributed by Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Virden. Plans were made for sending a Christmas box to the Masonic home and it was reported that Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harris were both doing nicely at Good Samaritan hospital, where they are receiving treatment for injuries suffered in an automobile accident.

During the social hour, Edward G. Kohlhagen, son of the hostess, showed a number of very beautiful colored pictures, which he had taken in Roseburg, Seattle and coast points. The pictures were greatly enjoyed by the group.

The next meeting will be a seven-thirty dessert-supper at the home of Mrs. Runyan with Mrs. Hercher acting as joint hostess, Jan. 5.

NEBRASKA VISITOR HONORED AT ENJOYABLE PARTY THURSDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Phillips entertained at a very enjoyable pinochle party Thursday evening at their home in compliment to the former's mother, Mrs. G. R. Phillips, of Wallace, Nebraska, who is spending three weeks here visiting her two sons, Keith and Grant.

Fall flowers lent a colorful note to the rooms. High score for the evening's pinochle play was won by C. M. Saar and the consolation prize was awarded to Grant Phillips and a guest prize was presented to Mrs. G. R. Phillips.

Later in the evening the host and hostess served lovely refreshments.

HOLIDAY DINNER IS ENJOYED AT THORNTON CABIN ON N. UMPQUA

Mrs. Warren McCombs

Back now from their honeymoon trip to Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCombs are at home at 128 South Parkwood avenue, Pasadena, California. Mr. McCombs took Miss Charlotte Lockwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lockwood, of Portland, as his bride in the Wee Kirk o' the Heather at Glendale, California, October 30.

Fragrant flowers and fern decorated the little church, where 100 relatives and friends gathered for the eight-thirty o'clock ceremony performed by Dr. V. M. McCombs. The bride was given in marriage by her father at the formal rites.

The bride was charming in a gown of white net, which was trimmed with lace around the bottom of the skirt and on the drop shoulder. With the dress, she wore lace mitts and a fingertip veil held in place by a Mary-Queen-of-Scots cap of lace and net. Her necklace was a single strand of pearls and she carried a bouquet which combined bird of paradise with bouvardia.

Mrs. Wesley P. Eby, matron of honor, chose a changeable taffeta gown of orchid shade. Bridesmaids were Miss Carole Fowler (formerly of Roseburg) and Miss Jean McCormack, of Portland. The latter two wore gowns of pink and the three attendants carried bouquets of sweetpeas and gardenias.

Tiny Sharon Lynn and Shirley Lee Gibson, twins, acted as flower girls. Their frocks were of blue and pink and they scattered rose petals in the path of the bride.

Mr. McCombs chose Lt. Eby as his best man. Dan Spencer and Harry Kemp were ushers.

The bride attended the Roseburg grade schools and later attended school in Portland. Her father formerly owned the C. A. Lockwood Ford Motor company in Roseburg, which is now operated by her uncle, Fred Lockwood.

The bridegroom was graduated from Pasadena Junior college and is now employed by the Pasadena Star-News.
