Turns the Tables

PITTSBURGH—Up in Elk county of the northwestern Pennsylvania big game country there's a deer carrying a gun.

Deputy Sheriff John Slavin sheepishly told friends the gun was his. Slavin fired at the 12-point buck and it toppled over. Thinking it was dead, the hunter started to tie a tag on his prize. He stacked his gun on the animal's antlers to facilitate matters.

As though that was just what the wily buck was waiting for, it sprang up and fled—plus the gun.
