Marries in Los Angeles, Dec. 6th

Miss Reta L. Houser, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Houser, of Roseburg, and George Boyd Taitt, son of Mrs. Maude Taitt, of Pasadena, Calif., were married at a very beautiful ceremony at eleven o'clock Saturday, December 6th, at the "Wedding Manor" in Los Angeles. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Julius J. Du Bose in the presence of a few relatives and close friends.

Organ music was played throughout the ceremony and "Because" and "I Love You Truly" were sung preceding the nuptial service.

The chapel altar was outlined with tall white tapers. Baskets of white gladioli were placed in front of a background of green ferns and palms.

The bride was charming in an eggshell colored dressmaker suit with accessories in two shades of blue. Her corsage was of three gardenias surrounded by blue delphinium. Miss Irene Houser, of San Diego, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was lovely in an aqua colored ensemble with accessories in Dubonnet and dusty rose. Her corsage was of pink roses and deep-pink sweet-peas. Albert H. Andrews, of Pasadena, acted as best man.

A wedding luncheon followed the ceremony and took place at the "Ivar House" in Hollywood. A lovely pink and white motif was carried out in the table decorations and the beautifully decorated tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Following the wedding luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Taitt left for a brief wedding trip to Santa Barbara, Calif., after which they will return to Los Angeles to make their home.

The bride, who is a popular member of the younger set here, was graduated from Roseburg high school and from Long Beach, Calif., Junior college. She was employed in Roseburg three years, before going to Los Angeles, where she is now employed by the Crown Willamette Paper company. The bridegroom, who is well known here, having spent several winters in this city, was graduated from Pasadena high school and Junior college. He is now employed at the North American Aircraft company in Inglewood, Calif.
