of new tires were stopped and delivery, even though on order and paid for, halted. Used cars may not be sold with new tires on them; cars coming from the factory with only four tires may not be delivered to purchasers with five tires; dealers may not move new tires, even for storage purposes, from the building in which they now are located.

Lending, leasing or trading of new tires likewise is banned.

Bergsch said the freeze order expires January 5 but that some rationing system is expected to be in effect by that time.

Riddle

RIDDLE, Dec. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Frazee of the Riddle school left Friday evening for Eugene to visit relatives over the Christmas holidays.

Miss Vivian Thompson is spending the week with her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Woods, at Leona.

The Rosenberg packing plant, under the management of Darrell Carter, has been running the past week, packing out several orders.

Mrs. Minnie Frater and daughter, Miss Frances, of Sacramento, are expected here for a holiday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stauffer. Mrs. Frater will remain for a longer visit but Miss Frances will return to her work in the schools after the holidays.

At a recent meeting of the Riddle grange it was voted to offer the use of the grange hall to the county defense program, for any emergency that might arise here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Aspey and daughter, Bertha Mae, are spending the Christmas holidays with relatives in the northern part of the state. Mr. Burpee is in charge of the White garage in their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ball and daughter, Patricia, who lost their home by fire Saturday night are now staying at the home of Mr. Ball's mother, but expect to move soon to the furnished residence owned by G. E. Atkins. The Ball family was away for the evening and returned to find the home in flames. None of the contents were saved and no insurance was carried on the household goods, although the owner had insurance on the building. The cause of the fire is not known.

At a meeting held at the home of Mrs. C. F. Stauffer Saturday afternoon the local cemetery association elected the following officers for the coming year: G. N. Riddle, president; Mrs. Ada Ellinger, vice-president; and Mrs. C. F. Stauffer, secretary-treasurer. The other members of the board of trustees are Helena Riddle and Ernest Pruner.

Miss Patricia Ball, senior in the Riddle high school, who will leave soon for Salem to enter a sanitarium for medical treatment, was given a farewell party by the student body Friday afternoon. A program of musical numbers and readings was presented. Miss Ball was given a year's subscription to the American magazine by the student body, a year's subscription to the Reader's Digest by her teachers, Prof. Lundberg, Prof. Frazee and Miss Davis, and was presented with a fine dictionary by the senior class.

Miss Myrtle Griggs of Coquille is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Griggs.

B. F. Nichols and son, Stille, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Most-hat were attending to business matters and shopping in Roseburg Monday.

Norris Fairbanks of Canyonville was a Riddle visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pruner received word Sunday of the birth of a daughter to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Campbell, of Yoncalla. Mrs. Campbell is at the Eugene hospital.

Snail Seers

Scottish maidens once placed snails on slates in the thought that their twisting, crooked tails might spell out the names of future husbands.

... And best wishes to our local merchants.
