Duke 2-1 Favorite To Defeat O. S. C. In Rose Bowl Tilt

DURHAM, N. C., Dec. 26.—(AP)—A rosy confidence prevailed at the two Rose bowl football camps today as Duke and Oregon State players tucked away their Christmas presents and resumed drills for the transplanted classic to be played here on New Year's day.

Although twice-beaten Oregon State is on the short end of a 2-to-1 odds in Durham, both Coach Stiner and Captain Chaves refuse to accept the underdog role.

"I don't know anything about Duke's team, but I do know something about my boys," said Stiner. "Nobody managed to score more than two touchdowns against us in 1941 and we don't intend to start the new year on the wrong foot."

Chaves, who will enter the U. S. air corps shortly after the game, was even more outspoken. "We feel," he said, "that a lot of people around here are going to be mighty surprised. Ever since we hit North Carolina last Wednesday, people have been telling us about how tough Duke is supposed to be."

"All right—so they talk. But what are we supposed to be? Pushovers? We've met tough teams before and we were tougher than most of them."

"We figure Duke has a fine team. So have we. We figure Duke is going to have to play eleven men at a time—not supermen. We'll have eleven guys in there too."

Coach Wallace Wade of Duke isn't doing much talking, but Captain Bob Barnett, blue devil center, said, "we're not cocky; we're just confident."

Hawaii Evacuees Arrive at 'Frisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26.—(AP)—Hundreds of evacuees and wounded, conveyed safely through waters infested with Japanese submarines, today related acts of heroism and praised the morale in embattled Hawaii.

Planes circled overhead as the passenger vessels, wearing a dark blue war paint, slipped quietly through the Golden Gates yesterday.

Lifebelts were worn during the trip by all passengers—even by the many children while they played games—and the ships were blacked out completely at night.

They zigzagged constantly because Japanese submarines have been preying on shipping off the California coast.

Football players of Willamette University at Salem, Ore., and San Jose, Cal., State told on their return of doing guard duty after the raids. Coach R. S. "Spec" Keene said his Willamette squad worked their way home by carrying for wounded men.

The three children of Captain Merle Williams of the air corps told of a Christmas party on the conveyed ships at sea which was long on fun but short on candy and nuts.
