FINE MEETING GIVE HELD BY W. S. OF C. S.

LOOKINGGLASS, Jan. 14.—A meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ernest Voorhies. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Arthur Marsh and the business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Corvin Heard. A complete review of the work of the past year was presented by the secretary, Mrs. Ted Hodges, who included in her review the reports submitted to the officers of the state W. S. C. S. each quarter during the year. The annual report of the finances was also given by the treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Marsh.

A discussion of the work projects to be undertaken during the coming year resulted in a decision to co-operate with the P.T. A. study club in doing Red Cross sewing similar to last year's project, and the committee in charge of the Red Cross work, Mrs. Arthur Marsh and Mrs. A. M. Robinson, was instructed to get materials for sewing and knitting from the Roseburg Red Cross headquarters. It was also decided to continue the work of making comforters, one top having been completed and donated by Mrs. Mary Smith to the society to be finished, and the ladies are requested to continue making the nine-patch blocks for assembling by the society.

Election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in the re-election of Mrs. Corvin Heard as president, Mrs. Roy Buell vice-president, and the re-election of Mrs. Ted Hodges as secretary and Mrs. Arthur Marsh as treasurer. Letters were read which had been addressed to the society by Walter Robinson in appreciation of the box of Christmas sweets forwarded to him by the society, and from Mrs. Ernest Peterson, a former member now residing in Willow Creek, Mont.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Clarence Miller. Present for the meeting were Mrs. William Voorhies, Mrs. L. B. Howard, Mrs. A. M. Robinson, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Ted Hodges, Mrs. Roy Buell, Mrs. Edna Williams, Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Mrs. Clarence Miller, Mrs. Corvin Heard and the hostess, Mrs. Ernest Voorhies. Mrs. Clarence Miller invited the society to meet at her home on February 4.

AZALEA GRANGE HAS INTERESTING MEETING

AZALEA, Jan. 14.—Azalea grange met at the hall Monday evening with thirty five members in attendance. The newly elected master, Roy Wilson, was in his chair.

Mrs. Velma Walton resigned her position as secretary, and Mrs. Lowell Curtis was elected secretary.

Several of the officers who were not present at the joint installation were installed by the past master, Frank Tripp. Those that were installed were: Mrs. Lowell Curtis, secretary; Bernadine Sparks, Ceres; Eugene Brady, assistant steward; and Henry Gaedecke, a member of the executive committee.

Plans were made for a program

Many Never Suspect Cause Of Backaches

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause aching backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up sick, feeling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or watery passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes that not only purify your blood, but also make it healthy.

GREENS P.T. A. HAS MEETING ON FRIDAY

The Greens P.T. A. met Friday evening at the school house for the January meeting. Mr. Ernest Bilger, vice president, had charge of the meeting. Reports on the various committees were heard and Mrs. Claude Parkhurst was appointed refreshment chairman for the Feb. meeting.

Mrs. Geo. Hess acted as program chairman in the absence of Mrs. Walter Jones and gave a very interesting talk on health. Mrs. Geo. Hess reported on the sale of defense stamps among the students which is very good. Over $14.00 worth of stamps were bought by the students last week. Every student in the school has a stamp book.

Mr. Leuellen presented several interesting numbers for entertainment. Albert Hooten played several musical selections, a reading by Katherine Bowen, musical and vocal selections by Henry Hall.

The attendance picture was won again by the lower grades room. A subscription to the Life magazine was given by the P.T. A. to the local soldiers. At the close of the meeting Mrs. John Hess assisted by Mrs. Norman Fisher served refreshments in the school dining room. The next regular meeting will be February 6th at the schoolhouse with Mrs. Claude Parkhurst in charge of the refreshments.

DELIGHTFUL MEETING HELD BY SEWING CLUB

DRAIN, Jan. 14.—The Sew and So club met at the home of Mrs. Maude Cowles, sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the afternoon by the several members until the tea hour, when the hostess served delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Myrtle Davis.

VIRGINIA MILDRED SCHULZE AND OTTO REINKOLD WEISZ MARRY ON SUNDAY, JAN. 4

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday, January 4, at one o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schulze at Brockway, when their daughter, Virginia Mildred Schulze, became the bride of Otto Reinkold Weisz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Weisz, of Underwood, North Dakota.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Sylwester, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Roseburg. The wedding took place under an archway of fir boughs and silver bells. Baskets of American Beauty roses, chrysanthemums and ferns flanked the improvised altar.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Gladys Johnson sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Vivian Lawrence, who also played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to enter the living room.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white tulle with full skirt and short puffed sleeves. Her finger-tip tulle veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of American Beauty roses, chrysanthemums and ferns.

Miss Lorene Hixson, niece of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a turquoise blue colored net frock. Her bouquet was American Beauty roses and forget-me-nots. Cecil Schulze, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Schulze home. Immediately following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Weisz left on their honeymoon to be spent in the southern part of the state and upon their return will reside on their farm near Brockway.

The bride is a popular Lookingglass girl, where she was graduated from high school. She has spent her entire life in the Lookingglass and Brockway communities. The bridegroom was educated at Underwood, North Dakota.

Guests attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Zeller, Miss Gladys Johnson, Art Boyen and daughter, Ann, of Brockway, Mrs. Vivian Lawrence, of Dillard, Mrs. Clair Burgoyne and family, Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schattenkirk, of Brockway, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Deardorff, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schulze, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Hixson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hassman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schulze and family, all of Eugene; and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schulte and son, Cecil.

JOINT INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS HELD

ELKTON, Jan. 14.—The I. O. O. F. hall was the scene of a very pleasant evening Tuesday when the I. O. O. F. lodge was the guest of the Umpqua Rebekah lodge for a joint installation.

The installing officers were Mrs. Nora Rydell and J. N. Hendler and the grand marshals were Mrs. Ida Thomas and Chester Rydell.

The I. O. O. F. lodge officers are J. L. Cook, noble grand; Warren Billick, vice grand; A. B. Haines, recording secretary; Dayton Minter, financial secretary.

CHEST COLD MISERY

FIRST—rub throat, chest, and back with Vicks VapoRub at bedtime.

THEN—spread a thick layer of VapoRub on the chest and cover with a warm cloth.

RIGHT AWAY, VapoRub goes to work—loosens phlegm—eases muscular soreness or tightness—helps clear upper air passages—relieves coughing. Brings wonderful comfort. And invites restful sleep.

J. B. Rader, treasurer; Roy Butler, warden; A. R. Andrews, conductor; Cleiel Denny, inside guard; Frank Wade, outside guard; B. S. Adams, chaplain, Charles Hedden, right supporter to the noble grand; Charles Hendler, left supporter to the noble grand; C. C. Jensen, right supporter to the vice grand; and William Garrison, left supporter to the vice grand.

The Rebekah officers are Mrs. Esther Gates, noble grand; Mrs. Agnes Hudson, vice grand; Mrs. Edith Gates, secretary; Mrs. Edith Adams, treasurer; Miss Iris Haines, warden; Mrs. Zea Wade, conductor; Mrs. Blanche Wade, inside guard; Mrs. Mary Beckley, outside guard; Mrs. Ella Fenley, chaplain; Mrs. Ida Thomas, right supporter to noble grand; Mrs. Mary Haines, left supporter to noble grand; Mrs. Mona Rydell, right supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Frances Hedden, left supporter to vice grand; and Mrs. Lena Bossen, musician.

After the close of the meeting refreshments were served in the banquet room by Mrs. Mary Haines, Mrs. Mary Beckley and Mrs. Agnes Hudson. The tables were very pretty with red, white, blue decorations.

NADIA DYER AND ELMER A. ROWAN ARE MARRIED CHRISTMAS EVE

Miss Nadia Dyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dyer, of Myrtle Creek, and Elmer A. Rowan, Jr., son of Mrs. G. A. Sargent, formerly of Bridge, were married at an impressive ceremony at nine o'clock Christmas eve.

The wedding took place in the living room of the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fisher, of Roseburg, in the presence of relatives of the couple. Rev. Harry R. Baird performed the impressive ceremony.

The Christmas motif was used in decorating the living room for the ceremony and the nuptials were performed before a cedar banked fireplace. Twin bouquets of Jerusalem cherries were placed on the mantle.

The bride was lovely in a navy blue afternoon dress. Her corsage was of gardenias and bouvardia. There were no attendants.

Following the ceremony, a charming buffet supper was served to the bride and bridegroom and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dyer and daughter, Laurie, Rev. and Mrs. Harry R. Baird, all of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sargent and son, George, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Freeman and son, Arvie Lee, of Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shelton and children, Nelda and Eugene, of Blue River.

Mrs. Malinda Oederkirk, president, will be in charge with Mrs. Anna Carson leading the devotionals and Mrs. H. C. Parslow presenting an interesting program. All members and friends are cordially invited to be present.

P.T. A. PRESIDENTS OF DOUGLAS COUNTY INVITED TO TEA

The presidents of Douglas county P.T. A. groups are invited to a delightful tea at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, January 17, to be held at the O. S. Chambers home at 1228 Madrone avenue in Laurelwood. Mrs. O. S. Chambers and Mrs. Wilbur Culp are acting as joint hostesses for the tea.

Motor Corps Formed by Women at Sutherlin

The women's motor corps branch at Sutherlin is the first in the county to be fully organized. Mrs. Helen Ellsworth, county chairman, announced today. The Sutherlin group, Mrs. Ellsworth reports, has started the Red Cross first aid course with classes set for each Thursday.

Members include Hilda Schiemann, Winnifred Dailey, Loretta Keith, Meryl Wahl, Jessie Brewer and Edna Romberg.

The members recently met with Mrs. Ellsworth, who gave detailed instructions concerning organization and duties during air raids and other emergencies.

Branches are being formed in other communities throughout the county. Mrs. Ellsworth reports.

A. G. Chase, Lumberman, Dies Here Suddenly

A. G. Chase, 56, who recently came to Roseburg from Tacoma to serve as local manager for the Fairhurst Lumber company, died suddenly last night at his home, 218 Rice street. Mr. Chase had been ill for several days, but death came suddenly from a heart ailment.

Born in Wisconsin, June 11, 1885, he had been connected with the lumber industry in Washington for many years prior to coming to Roseburg. Surviving are the widow, Ada Bishop Chase; a son, Gordon Bishop Chase, Tacoma, and a daughter, Rhoda V. Chase, Roseburg. The body has been removed to the Roseburg Undertaking company parlors and is to be taken to Tacoma for services and burial.
