WOMEN URGED TO REGISTER FOR HOME NURSING CLASSES

One of the most valuable courses offered to women by the American Red Cross is the home nursing instruction. Four classes have already been completed in Roseburg and three more classes are planned to begin in the very near future.

Women interested in joining a home nursing class are asked to telephone Mrs. J. H. Wharton at 293-J. Mrs. Wharton is acting as co-chairman with Mrs. T. H. Ness in the organizing of the three classes, which will include two afternoon classes and one evening class.

Prominent Roseburg graduate nurses will instruct the three classes. A large number have already enrolled in the classes, according to Mrs. Wharton, but the registration for the three classes has not yet been completed. As the committee wants to get the classes opened within the next week, every woman desiring to register is asked to do so just as soon as possible.

Marry At Spore Home

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Redifer

DAYS CREEK, Jan. 17.—One of the most charming weddings of the winter season was solemnized Sunday, Dec. 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spore when Miss Mildred Spore became the bride of Rollin Del Roy Redifer of Coquille, Rev. Harry Baird of the Myrtle Creek Christian church officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was most attractive in a floor length frock of sky blue silk crepe. Her arm bouquet was of lovely blossoms tied with white satin ribbon terminating in long streamers. Miss Geraldine Spore, younger sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was gowned in aqua blue, her bouquet being tied with yellow satin ribbon.

The bridegroom had as his best man, Lyle Spore, brother of the groom. Little Miss Nonnie Redifer of Coquille was a most charming flower girl, dressed in a yellow fairy dress and carrying a basket filled with blossoms.

Following the ceremony a very lovely wedding supper was served, the bride and bridegroom cutting the beautifully decorated wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Redifer, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Redifer and daughter, Miss Nonnie, and Mr. Exley of Coquille, Mrs. Dora Dean, Miss Geraldine Spore, Mrs. Wilma McGee and son, Roger, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spore, Albert Rowe, Lyle Spore, Vernon Redifer, Guy Lapp and Mr. Beers.

The happy couple left later in the evening midst a shower of rice to honeymoon at points in the northern part of the state following which they went to Coquille where they are making their home.

Mrs. Redifer, who is the attractive elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spore has a host of friends in this vicinity being a popular member of the younger set. She has made this her home her entire life, attending the local school and graduating with the class of 1941.

Mr. Redifer also has many friends here as he has frequently visited at the home of his uncle, Vernon Redifer.
