

OSC Hoopsters Defeat Huskies, Now Lead Parade

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Besides field goals, an even break on their Willamette valley invasion and a return to first place in northern division Pacific Coast conference basketball standings will be the goal of the University of Washington Huskies tonight.

In order to achieve the double objective, however, the Huskies will have to do better against the highly touted, veteran Oregon State quintet which took a 45 to 35 victory here last night.

The Beavers took over the division lead with two wins and one defeat, compared to three wins and two losses for Washington. Tonight's outcome will determine whether the Beavers tighten their hold on first place or yield it again to Washington.

Leading 28-19 at the half as a result of a five-minute scoring spurt, the Beavers resorted to a conservative game, retaining control of the ball most of the time and scoring a large percentage of their shots while their modified zone defense had Washington firing at random with uncanny inaccuracy.

The Huskies once managed to close in at 35-29, but could get no closer in the second period.

Sam Dement's 15 points were high, while Doug Ford led the Huskies with nine. The Beavers got 17 field goals in only 40 attempts while Washington connected with only 10 out of 74 shots.

DRIVE MORE SLOWLY...
TO SAVE LIVES...
TO SAVE MATERIALS
FOR DEFENSE

"Asking motorists to go easy on their driving is a strange way for an oil company to do business," you may say. But that's just what we're doing. For the most important goal right now is winning this war. Going easy on your driving...operating your car more sanely...will help defense. It will save lubricating oil, rubber, gasoline, and parts. Of course we'd like to get all the motorists possible to use Gilmore Red Lion gasoline. We know they'd benefit thereby, for Red Lion is the world's most economical gasoline. Official records prove it! But we don't want to sell a drop of Red Lion that is going to be wasted by poor or unnecessary driving. America is a nation on wheels...so use your car when you must—but not foolishly. Don't drive the few blocks you can walk. Let's all play ball with each other...let's play ball with Uncle Sam...for victory...a real American victory.
