When New AEFs Join Fight

SOON another million or more American men will be join ing the colors, and the vanguard of the half-dozen AEF's of 1942 will be on their way. They go out to fight in foreign fields, yet they go to fight to defend their own country at home.

We are still more fortunate, in the very face of these foreign campaigns, than the people most of the other countries in the war. We still have a chance to keep actual warfare largely away from our own homes. Sporadic at tacks may be made on continent al United States, but unless things go worse than we have a right to expect, there is no reason to expect any major fighting in the United States itself.

BARRING singular ill-fortune, we should not have to see our homeland overrun as the people of a dozen countries have been torced to see it. China, Russia France, Belgium, the Nether lands, the Philippines, Norway, Greece, Yugoslavia all these and many others have been forced to undergo the ultimate in war horfor the destruction and downfall of their own homes, lands and institutions. We shall be forced to undergo the death of many a fine American soldier, and that will be hard enough to bear. But the added horrors which London has seen, and Rotterdam, which Chunking and Shanghai and Pe king have undergone, may be spared us

The farther from our American shore our soldiers go to fight the enemies of America, the less the chance that the war itself can come literally to America. Our go to drive war as far away from America as they can It is in order to spare their people at home from meeting face to face war's horrors, that these Americans go to seek out the battle far away.

There's a screw loose in Burma, whose premier U. Saw has just been arrested by the British and charged with treason. When he failed to get dominion status from the British government, he is said to have started dickering with the Japs.

Burma is important, both as ateway to India and as the southern terminus of the Burma road. There will be hard fighting there sooner or later.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR CHAS A EDWARDS

fulfillment of prophecy con-curning the Messiah, was a de-yout and righteous man. What a beautiful compliment, devout and righteous. He had looked for "the consolation of Israel." We know what it means to be righteous: A man that is true and honest in all his ways. There is no place in his char-acter or in his deeds for any thing mean and shabby. Here is the foundation of every-thing that is truly worthwhile. No matter how beautiful a no matter now begutard a man's life may appear, or what fine qualities he may possess, his life is like a build-ing on a flimsy and unsound foundation unless he is funda mentaly righteous. What does it mean to be devout? It means that one's life has a certain quality and direction. It is de voted to something. A man may be righteous, but his righteousness may move in a very narrow sphere. No great love or loyalty may dominate his thoughts and words and deeds, but the devout man is not so. We have a good de-scription of him in the first psalm, which tells of the man who is blessed because he walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, and in God's law doth he mediate day and night. The devout man is thoughtful. He aspires always to a better knowledge to do God's will. A strong spiritual conviction had developed in Simeon that he should not see death, until he had seen the Lord Christ. When Joseph and Mary brought the child Jesus to Simeon, the conviction be to simeon, the conviction of came a realization, the long looked for day had come, and the glory of God filled his soul. Life had nothing more to offer. "Now Lord let thy servant depart in peace." Amen.
