MR. AND MRS. WILCOX HONORED AT FAREWELL DINNER-PARTY FRIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. John William Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pounds entertained at a charming six-thirty o'clock potluck dinner party Friday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox, who will move to Lebanon, where Mr. Wilcox has been transferred by the Shell Oil company.

The party was enjoyed at the attractive Robertson home on North Jackson street. The buffet table, covered by a beautiful white hand-made lace cloth, was centered by a bowl of heather and tall lavender candles. Games were enjoyed during the social hour. A handkerchief shower was given to Mrs. Wilcox and the Shell Oil company men presented a fountain pen to Mr. Wilcox.

Those enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Pounds, included: Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Farchet and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Horn, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cooper, Jr. and Mrs. Clay V. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hammond, Lynn Beckley and Camille Anne and John Marvin Robertson.

Mr. Wilcox moved to Lebanon Sunday and will be joined there this week-end by his family. Mrs. Wilcox was formerly Miss Agnes Burt of this city.

Cuan; banker, Prudie Hiding; magician, Augusta Moran; attendant, Chauncey Dunn; captain of guards, Paul Beaver; flag bearer, Lily Lohr; inner sentinel, Lydia Hooper; outer sentinel, Alta Smith; correspondent, Ruth Dishman, and managers, Cora Dourte, Winnie Hawn, Inez Crummett, D. S. Wade, Waincott and Shoemaker were recommended as the lodge physicians; Cynthia Germond, clerk, and Ethel Beaver as installing officer for the coming year.

An invitation is to be extended to Grand Guardian Minnie Hiner and team to conduct the installation ceremony.

Local neighbors were pleased to note the grand guardian's picture in the Oregon Journal, as she handed the vice president of the U. S. National bank of Portland a check for $50,000 in exchange for Series G defense bonds.

An interesting talk was given by G. N. Ethel Beaver on her recent visit to the Eugene lodge.

Refreshments and entertainment for the next meeting will be furnished by the losing side in the membership contest. All neighbors are urged to attend.

P. T. A. FOUNDER'S DAY PROGRAM IS GIVEN

(By Mrs. H. B. Carter)

A most unusual and interesting Founder's Day tea was held at the Junior High school, Monday evening, with all Parent-Teacher Associations in the city participating. Mrs. O. S. Chambers, president of the Jr. Sr. High unit, presided, opening the meeting with a flag salute led by boy scout Don DeBernard. Leroy Hiatt led the group in singing "America the Beautiful." Mrs. Chambers welcomed the guests, introducing the presidents of local units, Mrs. Don Radabaugh, Fullerton; Mrs. P. Hargis, Benson, and Mrs. Roy Bruton, vice-president of Rose, in the absence of their president Mrs. Ira DeBolt Mann. A short business meeting was held. Announcements on school activities were made by Mr. Beard and Mr. Brand. Of special interest was the National Assembly program of one-act plays, to be given February 25th, which Mr. Brand invited all to attend. J. Roland Parker gave a short talk on gardening, clothes and foods. An article in part was given by Mrs. F. Ramp from the National Parent magazine. A meeting of the County Council for February 14th was announced by Mrs. W. Culp. Mrs. Don Radabaugh called for volunteers to assist with their new project of hot lunches at Fullerton. The evening's program was then turned over to Mrs. Carl Wimberly, program chairman and with Mrs. Clyde Beard at the piano, Leroy Hiatt led in group singing of "Auld Lang Syne." A most charming and impressive candle lighting ceremony followed with Mrs. W. M. Campbell and Mrs. Alice Euland lighting candles, honoring founders of the parent-teacher movement, past presidents, educators, youth and tiny tots of preschool age.

Honor guests of the tea were past presidents who were introduced by Mrs. Wimberly. Of the Junior Senior high, Mrs. B. W. Maddox gave an interesting summary of early days, tree planting and various activities of parent-teacher work. Others who responded were Mrs. R. D. Williams, a past state vice-president, Mr. J. E. Dent, Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen, Sr., Mrs. Harry Hatfield, Mrs. F. Vinden, Rev. Perry Smith, Mrs. J. Runyan and Mrs. C. Wimberly. Those responding from Fullerton were Mrs. Foster Butner, first president and organizer together with Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen and Mrs. John Runyan who gave a brief history of Fullerton's tradition and who are active workers today, also Mrs. Lee Wolf, Mrs. E. A. Britton, Mrs. L. J. Carter, Mrs. Clyde Catgens and Mrs. W. Culp. Those from Rose school were Mrs. E. J. Gattis-John, Mrs. J. Runyan, E. S. Hall, Mrs. Don Radabaugh and from Benson Mrs. H. Hatfield, Mrs. H. C. Berg, Mrs. C. Rose and, Mrs. I. A. Caskey and Mrs. B. W. Maddox. Mrs. J. M. Freywell had charge of the Rose school's part on the program.

A silver tea followed. The table was decorated in patriotic colors by Mrs. Clyde Catgens and her committee, Mrs. H. Bellows, Mrs. A. Kronke, Mrs. S. Lorenz, Mrs. E. O. Rickil, and Mrs. G. L. Nicholas. Mrs. Clyde Beard was at the piano during the tea hour. Mrs. W. B. Maddox, Mrs. L. Kohlhagen Sr., Mrs. Foster Butner, Miss Addie Stewart, Mrs. Perry Smith and Mrs. J. Runyan poured.

The Rose school Bluebird group held a business meeting Thursday at the schoolhouse, after which the group went to the home of Mrs. Theo Bond and daughters, Rose Emily and Hallie, for lovely refreshments. Marilyn Beard poured the hot chocolate.

Those enjoying the refreshment hour with Mrs. Bond and daughters included Dorothy Henigan, Shannon Van Valzah, Arlene Watson, Joan Lee Honeywell, Marilyn Beard, Dian O'Farrell and the guardian, Mrs. J. M. Honeywell.
