Bride of Monday, February 2nd

Mrs. William Kendall Burt

At a simple, but impressive service Monday, February 2nd, at one-thirty o'clock at the First Christian church in this city, Miss Florence Janetta Morris, daughter of Fred Morris, of Marshfield, and William Kendall Burt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Burt, of Roseburg, were married by Rev. John A. Barney in the presence of immediate relatives and close friends.

The bride was lovely in an attractive suit of teal gabardine with brown accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias. Her only attendant was Miss Lois Blake, who wore a navy blue tailored suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Merritt Burt acted as best man to his brother.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Burt left for points north on their wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Burt are both well known in this city, having attended the local school. They will be at home to their friends after February 10th at the Valley Hotel apartments.

Marry at Church Wedding Jan. 18th

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Elliott

"The Assembly of God church" was the scene of a very pretty wedding Sunday afternoon, January 18th, when Miss Edna L. Bailey, youngest daughter of Mrs. M. E. Bailey, and John G. Elliott, only son of Mrs. W. J. West, were united in marriage before a large group of relatives and friends.

The church was beautifully decorated and Rev. A. H. Rosteveld, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride was lovely in a street-length frock of medium blue silk crepe. She carried an open white Bible with white satin streamers with tiny blue and pink satin bows alternating on the streamers. Her corsage was of pink carnations and fern.

Mrs. Winston Casper, nee Drennon Shortridge of Roseburg and now of Idaho Falls, Idaho, was matron of honor, and was charming in a navy blue frock, with a deep-pink corsage of carnations and fern. William Bromps acted as best man to the bridegroom.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Shaffer, of Canyonville, sang, "I Love You Truly." Miss Stella Jordan played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to advance to the altar and at the close of the service, played Mendelssohn's recessional. Robert Smith and Winston Casper were ushers. The wedding reception was held at the church and was followed by a wedding supper served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bromps on the Curry estate. The beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Elliott are well known in Douglas county, having resided in and near Roseburg for a number of years. They will make their home on South Kane street in Miller's addition, where their new home is nearing completion. Mr. Elliott is employed at the veterans administration facility here.
