NUTRITION CLASSES TO ORGANIZE FRIDAY

Women and men, who are 18 years of age and over, interested in taking the nutrition course to be offered here by the Red Cross, are asked to attend a meeting Friday night, February 13, at 7:30 o'clock at the justice court room at the courthouse. Registrations will be taken at that time and those signing up for the classes will be assigned to their respective classes to begin next week. Two evening and one afternoon classes will be organized. Miss Genevieve Eastling, Miss Frances Welch and Mrs. Margaret Watkins will be instructors. The course will be 20 hours. All persons planning to take the canteen course, must take the nutrition course first and secure their certificate in same, before they will be allowed to take the canteen course. Just as soon as the nutrition course is completed the canteen course will be offered.

MRS. GREEN IS HOSTESS TO CLUB

SUTHERLIN, Feb. 12.—The Past Noble Grand club met in the Methodist church parlors Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Hazel Green as hostess. Mrs. Belle Cook, Mrs. Ruth Manning and Mrs. Adelaide Cooper won the game prizes and Mrs. Bertha Barge the penny prize.

Those attending were the Mesdames June Shamp, Mabel Ross, Cora Allen, Alma Anderson, Bertha Barge, Maude Culver, Sevilla Bamber, Belle Cook, Hazel Green, Minnie Hartshorn, Anna Hankenson, Michael Flannery, Mildred Holman, Pearl Mable, Ruth Manning, Charlotte Parker, Sercepta Saucerman and the following guests: Adelaide Cooper, noble grand; Miss Mabel Williams, and Juanita Holgate, vice grand.

The next meeting will be held in the church with Mrs. Mildred Holman serving a 1 o'clock luncheon.

VALENTINE DANCE TO BE HELD AT FACILITY

A very delightful Valentine dance will be sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary Friday night from 8 to 10 o'clock at the veterans administration facility. Members of the auxiliary and friends are cordially invited and those desiring transportation are asked to call the chairman, Mrs. Walter J. Omscheid, at 808-R. Special features have been planned for the dance.

BROWNIES TROOP HAS MEETING

SUTHERLIN, Feb. 12.—The Brownies troop of the Girl Scouts held their last meeting for the month of January at the home of their troop leader, Mrs. John Madsen. Agnes Pleuward was hostess at that meeting. She popped corn they had grown in their garden. A dish garden was started. The first meeting for the month of February was held February 6. Donna Potter was out of town. Agnes was also absent because of sickness. Those present were Joan Clark, Ellen Madsen, Margaret Parrott, Elsie Mills and Barbara Rose. Two games were played, "Tweedle Dee, Who Am I" and a Brownie game, "What Hearest Thou?" Joan Clark chose to be hostess at the next meeting.

COUNTRY CLUB BENEFIT CARD PARTY TO BE HELD TONIGHT AT McCLINTOCK'S

A benefit contract bridge party will be sponsored by the ladies of the Roseburg Country club at a 7:30 o'clock dessert-supper tonight, February 12th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McClintock on Hamilton avenue. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. McClintock at 442-R. Prizes will be awarded both men and women winners in the contract bridge play. The party is one of a series being sponsored by the club.

Mrs. C. L. Branton will be hostess to Umpqua Chapter of the D. A. R. at an interesting meeting announced for two o'clock next Monday afternoon at the W. M. Campbell home on South Main street.

Mrs. Walter V. Monger will be program chairman of the Lincoln program and Mrs. Ray S. Petrequin, regent, will conduct the business meeting. All members are cordially invited to be present.

W. S. OF C. S. HAS MEETING THURSDAY

CANYONVILLE, Feb. 12.—The Women's Society of Christian Service met at the home of Mrs. Norman Ashcraft Thursday afternoon. Due to the inclement weather, only a few ladies were present. The society will meet at the Fred Cooper home next Thursday and tie a comforter. The top and lining has been donated by Mrs. E. W. Brown, to be sold and the proceeds given to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president, will conduct the business meeting and interesting roll-call speakers will be presented. Mrs. Beard and Mrs. Lewis, who are two outstanding musicians in this city, will present a charming program on "Music That George Washington Knew." As this will be one of the most enjoyable meetings of the year the members are privileged to invite guests.

PUBLIC INVITED TO BENEFIT PROGRAM AT RIVERSDALE HALL

A benefit program, dance and social has been planned for Saturday night at 8 o'clock at the Riversdale grange hall to raise funds for the Garden valley and Edenbower observation posts. A small admission charge will be made. Refreshments will be served. The public is cordially invited to attend.

COUNTRY CLUB DANCE TO BE HELD SATURDAY

A very enjoyable Valentine dance will be sponsored at the Roseburg Country club Saturday evening, February 14. Members of the club and friends are invited to enjoy the affair, which is in charge of Mrs. Gene Greene.

BEARD-LEWIS MUSICAL PROGRAM TO BE HEARD AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. Clyde Beard, pianist, and Mrs. Floyd Lewis, soprano soloist, will be guest artists at the Roseburg Woman's club one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon and meeting next Tuesday at the clubhouse. Mrs. L. A. Wells is hostess chairman and will be assisted by Mrs. H. C. Wilmot, Mrs. C. E. Marks and Mrs. A. H. Perrin.

Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president, will conduct the business meeting and interesting roll-call speakers will be presented. Mrs. Beard and Mrs. Lewis, who are two outstanding musicians in this city, will present a charming program on "Music That George Washington Knew." As this will be one of the most enjoyable meetings of the year the members are privileged to invite guests.

COMFORT CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING

MELROSE, Feb. 12.—The Elgarose Comfort club met for a no-host session Tuesday afternoon, February 3, at the home of Mrs. J. Sjogren. The club president, Anita Stark, called the meeting to order, and as the club secretary was absent, Ella Johnson acted as secretary.

No program was held as the program chairman was also absent, and upon roll call the members named some famous man and why famous. Plans were also made for the card party to be held February 14. The club prize was won by Mrs. Sjogren.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. T. Reece with Mrs. Anita Stark as assistant hostess. At the tea hour refreshments were served to Anita Stark, Ella Johnson, Sara Holmquist, Nettie Woodruff, Anna Olson, Mable Backlund, Edna Sjogren, Alberta Reece, Mrs. J. Sjogren, members and Mrs. Bloomquist and Mrs. Edman.

PUBLIC INVITED TO PANCAKE AND WAFFLE SUPPER NEXT TUESDAY

The ladies of St. George's Episcopal Guild will sponsor their annual Shrove Tuesday pancake and waffle supper next Tuesday, February 17, from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock at the parish hall on East Cass street. The public is cordially invited to attend. Mrs. R. R. Brand, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Theo. Bond, Mrs. James E. Judd and Mrs. J. M. Judd compose the committee in charge of the affair.
