the town, causing a few casualties.

British Give Further Ground
Other developments in the Pacific war:

Burma—London military quarters said the Japanese drive into Burma appeared nearing its maximum power and that the invaders were throwing fresh troops against British positions along the Sittang river, 20 miles from the Rangoon-Lashio railway.

Fighting stubbornly, British troops were forced to withdraw across the 30-mile area between the Bilin and Sittang rivers, but fresh Chinese reinforcements were reported streaming into Burma to stem the Japanese onslaught.

Australia—Royal Australian airmen attacked Japanese-occupied Rabaul, New Britain island, overcoming Japanese fighter planes to bomb airfields and shipping in the harbor.

CANBERRA, Australia, Feb. 24

(AP)—A medium force of Japanese coasted Port Moresby, principal coastal city in Papua, New Guinea, an air ministry communique announced today. Some buildings were damaged but no vital points were hit, the communique said.

There was no estimate of casualties.

Philippines—Gen. Douglas MacArthur reported a lull in ground fighting during the past 24 hours and said Japanese planes continued to drop incendiary bombs behind American-Filipino lines.

Japan Lies Full Air
Japan—Tokyo had nothing to say about the crushing defeat of a Japanese invasion armada off Ball, but asserted that Japanese units virtually annihilated an American and Dutch fleet of two cruisers and five destroyers. The

Elks Plan Special Patriotic Duties

Plans to reorganize patriotic activities of the Elks lodge on a national scale will be formed during the "Win the War Week," March 16 to 21, as proclaimed by Judge John S. McClelland, Atlanta, Ga., grand exalted ruler, according to Adrian Fisher, exalted ruler of Roseburg lodge. The week has been especially set aside, Mr. Fisher reports, to place the order in active cooperation in the county's war efforts and a full mobilization of present members is urged, together with efforts to greatly increase the membership. It is anticipated, Mr. Fisher reports, that the largest class ever inducted into the order at one time will be initiated during the special week.

Local plans for participation in the effort will be made at the annual past exalted rulers night celebration to be held February 26. At that time a special program will be arranged and the lodge will outline activities for the "Win the War Week." Past exalted rulers expected to be in attendance at the February 26 meeting are Guy Cordon, Paul Geddes, Edward Kohlhaugen, Carl Wimberly and H. C. Darby.
