The Roseburg high school spring sports program got under way in full force during the past week with the advent of some good weather. Three sports are being offered this year: baseball, track and tennis, with approximately 100 boys competing. In a meeting of boys last week Coach Jim Davis urged all boys to par-Jim Davis urged all boys to par-ticipate in some form of ath-letics and it appears that most of them are doing so. Boys not out for an interschool sport are al-lowed to take part in the intra-mural program under the super-vision of Mr. Lawes.

Baseball will be coached by "Hod" Turner again this year. An estimated 40 boys turned out for the "national pastime," including eight lettermen from last year: Hughes, Wimberly, Baker, Ander son, White, Wilson, Talbert and Sandstede.
