American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER

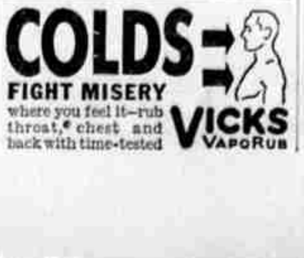
Saturday night, March 14, the American Legion and its auxiliary will celebrate the Legion's birthday at the I. O. O .F. hall. Posts or units from Drain, Oakland, Canyonville and Sutherlin have been invited. Any other 'stray' world war veterans are urged to be there. Pictures of Legion conventions will be shown and varied entertainment will be enjoyed. The birthday cake will be served later in the evening by auxiliary members. I. H. Riegel is commander and Bess Riegel, president of the unit.

Legion posts are not to further the political life of any individual, but off the record did you hear that Harris Ellsworth is to be a candidate for congressman? Of course, being a World war veteran he is a loyal legionnaire. Can't you imagine his loyalty to Douglas county and the district?

Such a feed as we received at Yoncalla at the termination of the first aid class last night! Peg Young and Sue Parkinson have completed theirs at Azalea this week, too. It is the privilege of auxiliary members to help in any community activity for which they are capable. The Red Cross work is just one bit of help to the country our men are fighting for. We can't fight enemies, but we can fight enemies of health, we can fight disease and be prepared for any emergency.

Special Service to Honor Those in War Forces

A special service in honor of Douglas county men and women who have gone into armed services is announced for 11 a. m. Sunday at St. George's Episcopal church. The program will include special features especially honoring those who have volunteered or have been inducted into military service, according to the Rev. Perry Smith, pastor.



Local News

Leaves for Portland—Gil Osborne, of this city, has left for Portland where Mrs. Osborne is receiving medical attention at the Veterans hospital, after suffering a collapse here last week-end. Her condition is now reported improved.

Returns Here—Bob Dishman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dishman, has returned here, following several days in Portland, where he took his second examination for the U. S. air corps service. He expects to remain here for about a month before being called to duty.

Now in Montana — Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Anglin, formerly of Roseburg, recently moved from Stevenson, Wash., to Dillon, Mont., where Mr. Anglin has been stationed as aircraft communicator under the civil aeronautics authority. Mr. Anglin was employed in the U. S. weather bureau office at Roseburg prior to his transfer to Washington. His wife is the former Alyce Moon.

Attends Conference—Roseburg was visited briefly Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd K. Dover of Grants Pass. Mr. Dover, past state commander of the Disabled American Veterans and now a member of the state executive committee, was en route to Eugene to meet with state and national officers to make plans for the forthcoming D. A. V. national convention. Mr. Dover recently filed his candidacy on the democratic ticket for nomination as congressman from the fourth congressional district.

Brand in West Moreland to reside. Miss Cooney is employed in the Douglas county assessor's office.

OREGON EVENTS FLASHED FROM WIRE SERVICE

McMINNVILLE, Mar. 11.—(AP)—McMinnville voters authorized last night a $50,000 bond issue for purchase of a site where the CAA proposed to construct a $367,000 emergency airport. The vote was 828 to 134.

PORTLAND, Mar. 13—(AP)—The coroner's office reported the death last night of Augusta Rittenour, 83, Portland, as a result of inhaling gas. In investigation showed she turned on a gas water heater without noting the pilot light was unlit. A neighbor detected the gas odor and summoned aid but the elderly woman died two hours later at a hospital.

PENDLETON, Mar. 13—(AP)—Fire damaged 25,000 bushels of wheat Wednesday night at the Havana station on the old Pendleton-Adams highway, the Elmer McCormach grain company estimated today. Flames spread to four bins in the company elevator and did minor damage to a boxcar before they were controlled.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

A Prayer of Repentance

O righteous Father, who by the Eternal Word of grace art calling us to repentance, help us amid the shaking of the earth and heaven to hear thy holy spirit's voice and turn to Thee. Is is Thou who givest repentance. Pour out upon Thy church and this human race the spirit and supplication. Lead us again to the alter of the cross, that we may look upon Him whom we have pierced, and are all now wounding afresh, even in the house of His friends, and putting Him to open shame. Give us to mourn for Him before the vision of the cruicified, to mourn in the anguish of those who today mourn an only son, and in the bitter grief of such as sorrow for their first born dead. He is made sin for us who knew no sin. From the far ends of the earth, Thy people are crying unto Thee. God of our mercies, while our hearts are overwhelmed within us, lead us to the rock that is higher than we. Wilt Thou deepen our repentance until we are made to feel the exceeding sinfulness of sin, and the majesty of Thy holy law, which we have so grievously broken. With renewed hearts and enlightened minds, with wills set free enable us to receive Thy coming kingdom in our dear Redeemer's name. Amen.

Seattle Firms Suffer Damage From Flames

SEATTLE, Mar. 13.—(AP)—All traffic was diverted from industrially important First avenue, south, today when a three-alarm fire broke out in the paper warehouse of the Coast Container Co., and spread quickly to the adjoining structures occupied by the Lang stove factory and the Central Pattern works.

The fire started in excelsior being manufactured in the Coast Container's building. A short circuit was believed to have created sparks which fired excelsior along a conveyor belt.

The Lang factory and the pattern works suffered slight damage but firemen said loss to the paper firm would be extensive. The blaze smoldered in the paper stock more than an hour after the flames were controlled.

A fourth firm, the Pickering Machinery Co., in the same building as the pattern works, suffered considerable water damage.
