SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

By MRS CLAUDE BAKER

"We can depend on you to do your part," Mrs. M. A. Andreson, national vice-president of the American Legion auxiliary stressed Sunday at luncheon held in her honor at the Umpqua hotel. State President Mrs. Polly McInturff of Marshfield, said: "We will not leave one stone unturned to win this war, you will do your part we know."

Mrs. Mae Whitcomb, secretary of the department, urged that the correct flag salute be taught all groups. The hand is placed over your heart and extended, indicating that from our heart we give all. The salute is dropped as the flag is placed in its holder and a new salute begins, making the complete salute actually two.

Mrs. Whitcomb pointed out that poppy money will be used this year to care for families of new soldiers, as well as those of veterans of the last war. In the local veterans facility men are making 60,000 poppies for which they receive pay to buy a few luxuries perhaps, the rest from sales goes to help their families.

Mrs. Dorothy Templar of Klamath Falls, state treasurer, made a full financial report and announced her candidacy for the office of department president. Vice-President Mrs. Nota Francis of Portland announced a membership in Oregon of 6804 members. "We must win the peace," Mrs. Francis stated, "not an armistice." Mrs. Francis will also be a candidate for state president.

"I am not so worried about our soldier boys as about what we are doing," said Past President Mrs. Hubert Goode of Portland. "We have the responsibility of the spiritual and moral development of young people today; our women can help with this problem. We are helping in the emergency nutrition and housing created by war jobs," she said.

Other speakers were Mrs. Walter Fisher, on the state rehabilitation board, Mrs. Walter Olmscheid, assistant hospital worker and chairman for Umpqua unit, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Mrs. Roy

"The trouble with the government is they spend too much time talking and not enough time actually working."

Two Gun Thriller

Just one of the spine-tingling scenes from "Stick to Your Guns," the new screen adventure of Hopalong Cassidy, beloved western hero. The companion picture is "Flying Wild," which starts today at the Rose theatre.

Young Miss Margaret Johnson, Miss Hulda Gjevre, Mrs. J. E. Pounds, Mrs. Ned Dixon, department welfare worker, Mrs. Victor Micelli, and many others, each carrying her responsible load in a world at war.

Mrs. Irvin Riegel, Umpqua unit president and also department hospital worker was introduced by the department president, Mrs. McInturff. "The war emergency has brought many changes in our hospital work and the population there is growing," she said.

As the delightful Easter program and luncheon was brought to a close Mrs. McInturff bade farewell with the oft wished thought, "When we come again we hope the war will be over."

Gunny Sacks Placed Under Price Ceilings

CORVALLIS, April 10.—(AP)—The lowly gunny sack, now much sought after, got a price ceiling today. The Oregon USDA war board announced the prices of second-hand bags as recently established by the OPA.

Maximum prices have been established on reconditioned and unneeded bags.

Top prices for the common 10-ounce burlap bag are 14.8 cents for reconditioned bags ready for use, and 11.8 cents for the unprocessed bags. Prices for eight-ounce bags are 11.5 cents and 8.5 cents.

The order applies to all sellers of second-hand bags. Dealers buying reconditioned bags for resale direct to farmers may change a premium of 5 per cent above the maximum prices on the first 100 bags in any one sale.

Military funeral services were held this afternoon at the veterans cemetery for Herschel R. Flesher, 44, World War veteran and resident of Cottage Grove, who died at the veterans hospital last Wednesday. Rev. A. H. Hostfeld officiated. Arrangements were in charge of the Douglas Funeral home.
