Ruffing Blanks Washington In Baseball Opener

Brooklyn Routs Hubbell of Giants; Ted Williams Hits Homer and Two Singles

(By the Associated Press)
Sports fans now have had their first taste of a tonic labelled "major league baseball, an antidote for war worries" and the dose given 190,775 persons in eight cities yesterday had an altogether agreeable flavor.

At Washington, before Vice-President Wallace and 31,000 other fans, old Charley (Red) Ruffing embarked on his 18th American league season by hurling a magnificent three-hit 7-0 shutout against the Senators.

At New York 42,653 fans, the biggest turnout of the day, watched the Dodgers down the Giants, 7-5, in the Polo grounds.

The National league champions looked invincible as they stabbed old Carl Hubbell for four runs in the first inning, belted him out of the box with Reese's two-run homer in the fourth and ran their margin to 7-0 in the first six stanzas.

But they didn't look so good in the seventh when Curt Davis gave five runs on two walks and four hits, including a homer by John Mize with two aboard, and their five errors for the game were best forgotten.

The Chicago Cubs nosed out the Cards, 5-4, by bunching two runs in the first inning and three more in the sixth off Mort Cooper.

The Cincinnati Reds were set down, 4-2, by the Pittsburgh Pirates as Max Butcher outpitched Bucky Walters, six hits to seven.

Johnny Cooney, the 41-year-old handyman of the Boston Braves, took over first base and provided a timely single and double to help beat the Phils, 2-1.

Williams' Bat on Job.
Ted Williams, the batting hero of last season with a .406 average, opened this campaign with a three-run homer on his first trip to the plate and also collected two singles. He knocked home five runs as the Boston Red Sox overpowered the Philadelphia Athletics, 5-3.

The Cleveland Indians let loose a war whoop calculated to chill some of their rivals for the American league's first division as they trounced the Detroit Tigers, 5-2.

Likewise, the St. Louis Browns made an early bid for recognition as a first division contender by chopping down the Chicago White Sox, 3-0, in the day's tightest hurling duel. Muncie held the White Sox to three hits, gave no walks, let no one get past first and face only 28 men. In rebuttal, Rigney rationed the Browns to five safeties and kept the score to 1-0 till the ninth.

Angelenos Down Padres, Oakland Trims Portland

(By the Associated Press)
Los Angeles and Oakland, two of the Pacific coast league's heaviest hitting outfits, made use of their willow workmen to chalk up wins yesterday against San Diego and Portland respectively.

The Angels, who top the league in team batting, thumped the Padres, tailenders on the baseball list, 5 to 1.

The Oaks, third in the team standings, defeated the Beavers, third from the bottom of the list, 3 to 1.

Angel heavy-hitters went to work at the outset to blast Padre hurler Bill Thomas for six hits and three runs in the first two innings. Thereafter, Poffenberger, Padres relief pitcher managed to hold the Angels to six hits.

It was much the same story in Oakland where Christoff, Oak left fielder, stepped to the plate in the first to slap out a double and score Malho.

Christoff further hiked up his personal batting average in the fourth when he accounted for the Oaks' second tally of the night with a home run.

Ralph Buxton, Oakland mound ace allowed seven scattered hits, while Hilcher of the Beavers was touched for eight.

Speaking of Masterpieces...
1—Liked a lot! When we put IMPERIAL into the picture, experts agreed we had a masterpiece—a whiskey with an aroma, a smoothness, a flavor that put it in a class of one. And predictions were that we had the makings of a winner!

2—Liked by more! And predictions were right! When we decided to really show off IMPERIAL, folks "crowded round"—sales zoomed. For instance, in one big test-state it hopped ahead of 332 long-established whiskeys to reach first place—and has stayed there ever since!

3—Liked by millions! Taste IMPERIAL—and see why this grand whiskey is drawing the big crowd! Taste why it's America's fastest-growing whiskey. Ask for it at your bar—or take home a tryout bottle. Taste why it's getting the cheers!

IMPERIAL IS GREAT FOR 2 BIG REASONS!
"Velvety" for extra smoothness!
