ROSEBURG CHAPTER OF EASTERN STAR HOSTESS TO SOUTHERN CHAPTERS

Roseburg chapter of Eastern Star entertained chapters from Riddle, Myrtle Creek, Canyonville and Glendale at a very lovely affair Thursday evening at the Masonic temple. Miss Gladys H. Strong presided as worthy matron in the absence of Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker.

Beautiful baskets of spring flowers were used about the chapter room. The program included beautiful piano and solo-voxy numbers by Mrs. Myrtle Burr; reading of a three-act comedy by Miss Helen Casey, assisted by Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter, and two very lovely vocal solos by R. M. Church, accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow.

Following the program lovely refreshments were served at beautifully appointed tables in the banquet room. Pale yellow, white and orchid spring flowers were used on the tables. Covers were placed for seventy-five. Mrs. G. M. Krell and Mrs. Grant Osborn were joint chairmen of the hostess committee and were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buell, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Osborn, Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen, Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Miss Margaret Page, Mrs. Morgan Lawson, Mrs. W. R. Brown and Mrs. E. A. Pettey.

Invocation was given by Mrs. John William Robertson and the worthy patron, Earl Wiley, acted as master of ceremonies and called on the visiting guests for short talks.

PLANS MADE FOR ANNUAL EXHIBIT AND TEA TO BE APRIL 30

The Roseburg W. C. T. U. met Wednesday at the Methodist church parlors to formulate plans for holding its annual spring tea and exhibit at the church the afternoon and evening of April 30th.

Mrs. Annie L. Russell, president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Charles A. Edwards conducted the devotions. The committees in charge of the annual tea and exhibit made plans for having exhibits throughout the entire parlors of the church.

A spinning demonstration will be a feature of the afternoon at the exhibit and the person in charge of this will be dressed in an old-fashioned costume. The ladies are planning to exhibit articles not shown at their affair last year. A very interesting program has been planned for both afternoon and evening and refreshments will be served.

Quilts, hand-made laces and table cloths, antiques (featuring a large assortment of pioneer articles owned by residents of Douglas county) needlepoint and rugs will be included in the displays. Mrs. J. D. Osborn and Mrs. V. J. Micelli are acting as joint chairmen of the affair. The exhibit will include a display of hats, fashioned 85 to 90 years ago.

A large part of the proceeds of this benefit affair will go to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. A most cordial invitation has been extended to the public to enjoy the affair.

JANE WANGEMAN BECOMES BRIDE OF RUDOLPH KALINA AT EUGENE ON APRIL 8TH

Of much interest here is the wedding of Miss Jane Wangeman, lovely daughter of Mrs. Irene B. Wangeman, of Roseburg, and Rudolph Kalina at the Presbyterian church in Eugene Wednesday afternoon, April 8th, at five o'clock.

The wedding was attended by about thirty-six friends and relatives of the couple. Sorority sisters of the bride acted as attendants.

The bride was beautiful in a dusty rose ensemble with brown accessories and a corsage of hyacinth buds and forget-me-nots. Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left on a wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Salem.

Attending the wedding from Roseburg were: Mrs. Irene B. Wangeman, mother of the bride, Mrs. Margaret Brown and Mrs. James Tynan.

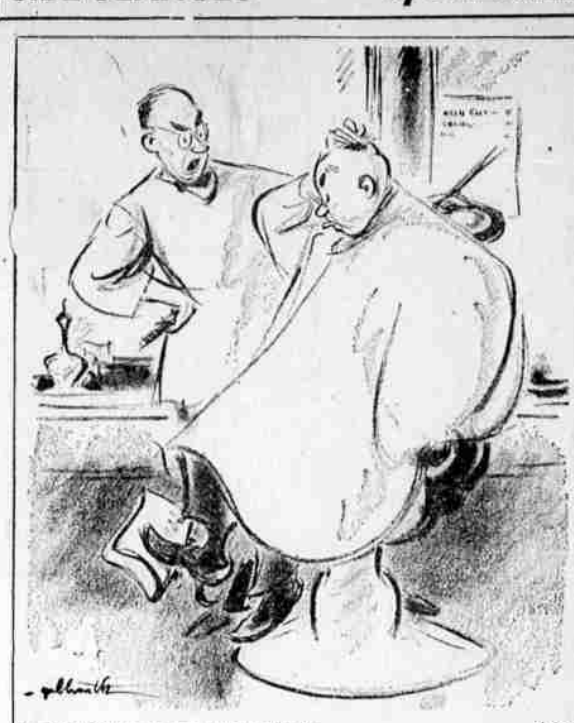

The bride was graduated from Roseburg senior high school in 1939 and for the last three years has been a student at University of Oregon. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. The bridegroom attended high school in Malin, Oregon, and was later graduated from University of Oregon. He is now employed at the state capital in the Public Utilities department of the state house.

JR.-SR. P. T. A. MEETING IS HELD ON MONDAY

One of the most interesting meetings of the year was held Monday evening, at the Jr. High school, of the Jr.-Sr. Parent-Teacher association with Mrs. O. S. Chambers, president in charge. Sergeant McElroy led the pledge of allegiance to the flag and later gave an interesting talk. The project of furnishing sandwiches for the high school shift at the filter station was reported to be progressing nicely with the cooperation of the parents. Miss Helene Robinson led the group in patriotic singing, then presented the High school sextette in a delightful number. Numerous school activities were announced by Clyde Beard, principle of Senior high school and principle R. R. Brand of Junior high. E. A. Britton spoke on 4-H and youth groups in the community. Following a general report of committees, officers for the coming year were elected as follows: H. B. Carter, president; Mrs. E. A. Britton, vice-president, Mrs. Ray Hampton, secy-treas.

Mrs. Carl Wimberly, program chairwoman, introduced Marshall Pengra of KRNR, who led a forum on the adolescent child and the "teen age dating problem." Late hours, frequency of dates and conduct during dates, came in for their share of discussion. Mr. Pengra kept the meeting to a high pitch of interest and a high level. There were firm reminders that parents have a job that challenges their resources of wisdom for right decisions and the courage to enforce them. High standards in the home and getting the child's point of view in order to keep pace with their interests and activities, being sure they were wholesome and desirable, were highlights of the forum.

The last meeting of the year will be held May fourth, at which time, Dr. Victor P. Morris, of Eugene will be the speaker.

MRS. HARVEY EWENS ENTERTAINS GARDEN VALLEY WOMEN'S CLUB

Mrs. Harvey Ewens very delightfully entertained the members of the Garden Valley Women's club at the clubhouse Thursday afternoon. Large bouquets of purple iris and lilacs made the room very attractive.
