SOCIAL FOLLOWS CLASS COMPLETION

DAYS CREEK, May 6.—Since Tuesday evening marked the closing of the series of classes in first aid which have been in progress here for the past ten weeks a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed following the regular class session which was of especial interest in that films picturing a practical application of first aid were shown and then discussed by the group. Earlier in the evening all those who have been attending had demonstrated various types of bandages for given injuries. These classes have proved to be most interesting as well as instructive and it is hoped
