AEF In Ireland Boosted

On the whole, Adolf Hitler ap-peared to face an increasingly doomy outlook not only in the Russian campaign but at Ger-many's back door along the Eng-lish channel "invasion coast."

This was emphasized anew with the disclosure that the big gest AEF contingent of the war tens of thousands of fresh United States troops with their own tanks and artillery—had arrived to bolster earlier forces training in northern Ireland.

The huge convoy, almost as large as the greatest of Gen. John J. Pershing's overseas shipments in 1918, stood off axis submarines and probably sank at least one on the 2,400-mile voyage, arriving safely to keep intact the U. S. navy's record of never having lost a roopship.

A responsible London source declared the arrival of the nev contingent, equipped with miltools, had shifted the balance of military power in western Europe to the allies' favor for the first time in the war.

The source said the allies could sow plan for an offensive with at least 20 divisions, 300,000 men. and added:
