Sugar Rationing Card Issued for Parrot

ADRIAN, Mich., May 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Adam Johnston has obtained a sugar rationing card for her polly, a fastidious parrot, after explaining to a rationing board that it was necessary for both the family's peace of mind and the bird's health.

With polly cut down on its sugar, its disposition went badly sour and the Johnston farm home five miles northwest of here became upset.

Things have been "on edge," Mrs. Johnston said.

The bird's peculiarities include a stern dislike for cookies, candy and water but insistence on coffee three times daily—with sugar.

The rationing board granted polly a card for one pound of sugar a month under the "pet provision" of the rationing order.
