Camas Valley

CAMAS VALLEY, MAY 21—Miss Esther Brown of Medford and Margaret Brown of Portland spent the week end at the home of their mother, Mrs. Ethel Brown. Neal Brown reported in Roseburg Monday for Army duty through selective service. Miss Inis Sites left school last week to go to Arizona where she will join relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Hains and family have moved from the Richter camp ground to the Siefolt house. Virgil Beamer, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beamer, underwent an emergency appendicitis operation at Mercy Hospital in Roseburg Monday night at 9:30 o'clock. Dr. Waincott was in attendance. Mr. or Mrs. Beamer have been staying with him most of the time. He was reported as slightly better Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Siegel spent Tuesday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Siegel. Mr. and Mrs. George Trueman of Marshfield visited relatives here Tuesday. Thursday afternoon the May Fete and a Saga of American History were presented at the school auditorium. "The Wedding of the Painted Doll," crowning the May queen Indian dance and song were given by the Primary children. The Intermediate grades took part in "The Making of the First Flag" and the "Minuet." The upper grades representing old fashioned folk sang and danced the Virginia Reel and square dance, followed by the winding of the May Pole. What Kills Cock Robin Birds suffer from many diseases akin to those of men. Among them are tapeworm malaria, elephantiasis, appendicitis, tuberculosis, ptomaine poisoning, lead poisoning, and various fungi bacterial and virus ailments.

Post Obligates Man in Navy; Father is Proxy

Charles Dusseau, now in active service with the United States navy, has become a full-fledged member of the Patrick W. Kelley post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Although he was not present to accept the obligation of membership, his father, Paul Dusseau, a veteran of the first World war and an active member of the V. F. W. post acted as proxy for his son when the membership obligation was conferred here Sunday by John Snellstrom of Eugene, past department commander, at a Ninth district conference held at Carl's Tavern. Other local veterans to assume the obligation were Marion A. Deakins and Fred Slemplinski. The meeting was called by Commander Vincent Malone of the local post and was conducted by Major H. G. White of Eugene, district commander. Out of town visitors were Major White, Past Department Commander Snellstrom and Walter Larwood of Eugene; Ace Gregg, commander of Cottage Grove post, and Earl Culver, Walter Lunn and Clarence McIntire, Florence.

Price Fixing Rules To Be Told at Meeting Here

Roseburg merchants and managers of business firms will have an opportunity Friday evening to hear a discussion of the detailed rules and regulations pertaining to price fixing order on retail merchandising. The meeting, sponsored by the Roseburg chamber of commerce, will be held at 7:30 at the circuit court room in the courthouse at Roseburg. Miss Margaret White, who recently attended a school of instruction at Portland, will be the principal speaker. Miss White, who is the administrator for the county welfare commission, also heads the local information department for the OPA. The chamber of commerce is urging that every merchant and retail manager be present at tonight's meeting, so that there will be a thorough understanding of the regulations, Harry Pinniger, chamber of commerce secretary, states.

Powerful enough to do the work of a heavy team, a tiny tractor has been recently designed for use with a mowing machine, plow, farm wagon or harrow. It will work a 10-hour day for less than 75 cents.
