RED CROSS CANTEEN DINNER IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR OF THURSDAY

The third of a series of dinners sponsored by the canteen ladies was enjoyed last evening at six-thirty o'clock at the Episcopal parish hall with Mrs. T. B. Vanden and Mrs. C. W. Wharton acting as general chairmen. Snowballs, iris and phlox formed pretty bouquets for the long table, where covers were placed for forty canteen members and their invited guests.

The canteen course, which is sponsored by the American Red Cross, has been taught by Mrs. Daniel Crockett, assistant dietitian at the veterans facility. The ladies were divided into three groups with each group sponsoring a dinner.

Mrs. Roy Bellows is county canteen chairman with Mrs. Velle Broadway as city chairman. The first canteen dinner was in charge of Mrs. C. E. Roberts and Mrs. R. L. Whipple and the second dinner was in charge of Mrs. Harry A. Single and Mrs. J. C. Hume.

Plans are being made for the canteen groups to sponsor a dinner for their husbands and invited guests the evening of June 4 at six-thirty o'clock at the Episcopal parish hall. Mrs. Broadway announced Mrs. Bernard J. Howser, as chairman of the dinner. Assisting Mrs. Howser will be: Mrs. Bever, Mrs. F. C. Kuck, Mrs. Ira Byrd, Mrs. J. L. Pounds, Mrs. P. Bergh, Mrs. Hoyt Snyder, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. L. W. Ruhl, Mrs. Paul Jenkins and Mrs. Noble Goettel.

Mrs. Harry A. Single, Mrs. L. W. Josse and Mrs. Harry S. Black were appointed chairmen of the committee for selecting uniforms for the canteen ladies.

A short talk was given by Miss Trude Hoppe, from the bureau of home economics of the U. S. department of agriculture, Washington, D. C. regarding a survey being made at the present time by the government relative to family incomes, savings, materials on hand and foodstuffs served in their homes.

Mrs. E. A. Post, secretary of the Douglas chapter of American Red Cross, gave a short talk and stated that 20 certificates in nutrition had been received and persons having qualified for a certificate could receive same by calling at the Red Cross office.

All ladies taking the canteen course were first trained by the nutrition course. Over thirty ladies have taken the canteen course, which is sponsored by the Red Cross for the purpose of training women to prepare and furnish food in case of an emergency or disaster. The women are being trained along with numerous other Red Cross training courses made available as a result of the national defense program.
