DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS
The present world war has seen some new and strange things. Not the least of these is the development of psychological warfare. Carefully planned suggestions of weakness, of doubt, and disloyalty have produced confusion among the enemy, and made attack from without easy. In the World War I the Germans used a tactic they called "Schreckkette," which means to terrorize. This seems to be a modern adaptation of a method which Satan used from the beginning. By suggesting he raised a doubt in the mind of Adam and Eve, hinting that God had an ulterior motive in forbidding them to eat of the fruit of the tree in the midst of the garden. Satan is still at this subtle business. Evil is not really the menace that many say it is. Be modern in a modern world they tell us. Thousands of young people fall for such suggestions. We can ignore many of the old customs and not suffer. One does not need God and religion in this modern world. Thousands fall for this suggestion. Evil has his fifth columnist everywhere just now. Defense lines are seldom taken by frontal attack. They must first be weakened from within. Amen.
Grove, spent Sunday at the L. Hancock home.
Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Fox and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Haines were Eugene visitors Tuesday.
Mrs. Ida Thomas and Lawrence Thomas left recently for Seattle where Mr. Thomas is working. Mrs. Thomas expects to stay for some time.
The eight grade graduation exercises will be in the new school building Tuesday evening. This will be the first time the new building has been used.
Douglas Fenley is recovering from the measles.
