Glenn L. Wilson was elected to membership, and Reba Hartley, of Sutherland lodge No. 218 was received as a member by transfer, and Daynise Beach was recommended as assistant advisor for the Theta Rho girls club, replacing May Beatty, who recently moved to Idaho.

Election of officers was held and the following elected:

Splendid reports on the state Rebekah assembly and grand lodge held in Portland this month were given by Winnie Hawn, Maggie Dent, Hazel Althaus, Edythe F. Kelley, Ethel Bailey and Ralph Russell.

The delegates were informed that the Rebekah assembly will meet in Portland for the duration.

Mrs. Edythe F. Kelley, past president of the Association of Rebekah Assemblies, Mrs. Ethel Bailey, warden of the assembly of Oregon, and Ralph Russell, grand warden of Oregon, were introduced and escorted to seats of honor on platform where they were greeted by the noble grand, Virginia Cyrus, amid much applause by the members.

Mr. Russell and Mrs. Bailey were initiated in 1915, both being received as members in the Roseburg lodge the same evening. This is the first time in the history of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon that the two wardens were elected from the same lodge and city.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

"It's not the gale, but the set of the sail That determines the way we'll go!" A motto like that and they cannot fail. The seniors we love and know.

We congratulate each of you here and around In the county of Douglas so large There's some of you'll fight in the air or on ground While some to a college will charge.

So our prexy Bess Riegel, today to me said

"Will you tell them their future a promise does hold Of brighter and greater things just ahead!"

President Bess Riegel also wishes to thank all those who helped in the poppy sales for Umpqua unit. What with the rain, it was quite an undertaking to carry poppies Friday. In Glendale Mrs. Jess Bowman and Mrs. Roy Robinson were on deck, as in previous years, while Nora Boyle carried on in Camas Valley. Dillard saw Mrs. Loren Miller with her arms laden with the symbolic red poppy and right royally she was supported. Mrs. Myra Sharp in Myrtle Creek and Mrs. Ira Poole in Canyonville were two other busy ladies Friday and Saturday. In Grants Pass they could have used over 750 more poppies than were ordered, but no more were available. Mrs. Riegel said. In Medford, they could have used thousands more. The poppy was worn for the men who died at Pearl Harbor, Bataan and Wake, as well as for those killed in battle in France 24 years ago.

Saturday is Memorial day. Legionnaire James T. Mangan of Chicago recently said, "There are some who die but can never be forgotten. A young man taken while still in his youth, but a youth already blazing with energy and strength and brilliant promise. Or an old warrior, after a lifetime of service to his cause... still a great leader, an undying inspiration to millions who follow but never knew him."

"You remember the great men who were so strong or brilliant they can't be forgotten. These great men are only symbols of ability and achievement, yet you remember them."

"Yet your family and your friends were much more than these others—they were you, your heart, your love, your life. Why should strangers live because you remember them and your own dear ones die because it was so easy to forget those whose principle gift to the world was love and friendship for you."

"Make them live and make them great. Just as in the world of your own heart, as the great man is to the world at large—by remembering."

"They live if you remember; they die if you forget. On Memorial day, as deep memories rise to choke us, and a flower or flag make us aware of our duty to honor and pray for our dead, what a noble thought to make Memorial day last all year round, to keep these memories alive... to restore life and love to our own dear ones by the simple miracle of remembering."

Today we have special cause of remembering one who is in far off Hawaii, Clinton Gorthy. Legionnaire Gorthy cabled $15.00 to Umpqua post to be used to send a boy to Beaver Boys' State! That is remembering. Probably five boys will attend Beaver Boys' State this year from Roseburg. Funds are furnished by patriotic clubs and individuals who desire to help train boys to become future citizens who know government, because they have seen it work. Umpqua post wishes to thank all those who are thus buying a brighter future for America.
