Miss Viola B. Sellers of Gothenburg, Neb., and Henry W. Snook of Harrisburg, Neb., were married at Lexington, Neb., June 7, 1892 at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Black, attorney at law. They started keeping house in Gothenburg and lived in the state of Nebraska until 1906 when they moved to Boise, Idaho, to Portland in 1909, back to Union, Ore., in 1913 from whence they came to Sutherlin in 1923 where Dr. Snook still practices as an optometrist, a profession he has followed for 44 years.

By MRS. CLAUDE BAKER. Listen Sunday, flag day over KRNR to the dramatic story of the writing of America's national anthem as told by Arthur Sewell, blind World War veteran and Lucy Monroe, the "Star Spangled Soprano." Mr. Sewell has charge of the flag house in Baltimore where the Fort McHenry flag was made. You will wish to hear this beautiful story, which is the recording made by the finest dramatic talent of the National Broadcasting company. The sound effects during the bombardment of Fort McHenry are realistic and the interpretation inspiring. This recording is being presented to KRNR by the Umpqua unit as a very small token of the appreciation felt by the auxiliary for the help of the staff at the station, in presenting their programs. Listen Tuesday to the auxiliary program at 5:00 over KRNR with chairman Mrs. Tom Parkinson.

President Mrs. Irvin Riegel has announced that no meeting will occur this week. The next meeting, that before convention, will be in July.

President Riegel has urged a full observance of flag day Sunday. Display your flags. Be sure the union or stars are to the left and never have it down except as a signal of distress. It must not be draped over the hood or top of a vehicle. When hanging vertically against the wall the stars should be to the upper left. When on a speaker's platform, if displayed flat it should be above and behind the speaker. If in a staff it should be in a position of honor, at the speaker's right. Never should it be used to drape the platform.

Flag day this year also opens a citizenship training program at O. S. C. which is sponsored yearly by the Legion. No girls state will be held by the auxiliary this year, due to war conditions, but the Legion will continue its boys' state. Commander Irvin Riegel in telling the boys from Roseburg about the week they have in store, said, "Beaver boys state attempts to show that our scheme of government has not outworn its usefulness; that all a democracy needs is an intelligent citizenry and a clean, honest and impartial administration responsive to the will of the people. Its purpose is to teach the youth of today constructive attitudes toward the American form of government. The program is in operation in thirty-nine states. The 1942 school will be the sixth session of Beaver boys state.

Over 1,200 boys to date have attended sessions of Beaver boys state, 20,000 attended national camp in 1941.

Roseburg boys fortunate enough to attend the session next week are Varney Baker, Bill Turner, Jack Horn, Perry Dixon, Jr., Jack Weaver, John Dixon and Bert Young. They will leave by Greyhound at 10:50 Sunday morning and will return the following Sunday. Various civic organizations and individuals are acting as sponsors.

D. M. McDade, president has said, "experience has shown that a stable government depends entirely upon a stable citizenship. That kind of citizenship must have a fundamental understanding of the basic government of the United States. If we are to have that kind of stable citizenship, resulting in a stable government, we must work for a keen interest in government among our young citizens at an early age. This is what the new youth activity of the American Legion—boys state—is doing for the young men of the nation. It gives them practical training in the various offices of the municipality, the county and the state. It teaches them that they as citizens, have an individual responsibility in the maintenance of the system of government which has made the United States a free nation."

Roseburg boys fortunate enough to attend the session next week are Varney Baker, Bill Turner, Jack Horn, Perry Dixon, Jr., Jack Weaver, John Dixon and Bert Young. They will leave by Greyhound at 10:50 Sunday morning and will return the fol-
