Mr. and Mrs. Caro Miller

Mr. and Mrs. Caro Miller and daughter, Marilyn, of Oakland, California, are spending their vacation visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Elfert and enjoying the fishing on the North Umpqua river. Mrs. Miller, whose stage name is Lynn Miller, was formerly Lillian Moore, of Roseburg.

Mrs. Miller is one of the few women magicians of America and today holds the distinction of being one of the few in the world. She recently completed a tour of the United States and only recently played at the El Capitain in Hollywood and the Curran in San Francisco, also having played at a large number of outstanding theaters and night clubs throughout the country. In addition to their magic, Mrs. Miller also presents the only interlude with rag pictures under the lights of ultra-

VIRGINIA ANN WINSTON AND JAMES L. GRAY, JR., MARRY IN CORVALLIS

Of much interest here, is the wedding of Miss Virginia Ann Winston, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Winston, of this city, and James Latimer Gray, Jr., of Seattle, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gray, of Juneau, Alaska, at the home of Professor and Mrs. Paul Petri in Corvallis, Thursday evening, June 11.

Four stately plans in a semi-circle augmented by two seven-branch candleabra holding white lighted tapers formed the attractive setting for the ceremony, which was read at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening by Rev. John Glasse, of the First Presbyterian church of Albany, formerly of Juneau, Alaska.

Vernon Satter sang, "Through the Years" and "O Promise Me", with Professor Petri at the piano. Miss Iris Gray, sister of the bridegroom, played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a blue eyelet afternoon dress with a small blue tight-fitting hat with eyelet brim and white lilies in her hair. She carried a single orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Ulah Winston, of Portland, was maid of honor for her sister and was attractive in a silk print dress with white hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was white baby gladioli and Cecil Brunner roses. Lester Keenan, of Portland, was best man to the bridegroom.

With their dark dresses, Mrs. Winston, mother of the bride, wore a corsage of white carnations and red rosebuds; Mrs. Petri wore a red rosebud corsage, and Miss Gray, red carnations and white lilies.

A reception followed the ceremony with Mrs. Winston, Mrs. K. D. Lytle and Mrs. Earl Smith, all of Roseburg, presiding.

For traveling the bride wore a light brown suit and brown straw hat with beige coat and accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Gray left immediately for Portland and took the plane for Seattle to make their home.

The bride is well known here, having been graduated from the local schools and latter attending Oregon State college. She has been recently employed at Camp Adair. Mr. Gray is an engineer in aircraft production, employed in Seattle.

MRS. GEORGE E. HOUCK ENTERTAINS AT CHARMING PARTY WEDNESDAY

In compliment to Mrs. Adeline Powe, prior to her departure for Wyoming, Mrs. George E. Houck entertained at a very charming party at her lovely home on South Stephens street Wednesday evening.

Beautiful bouquets of roses were used about the rooms, while the serving table was covered by an attractive cloth and centered with a large bowl of very lovely sweetpeas from the I. R. Wilder garden, "Glen Echo" near Winchester.

Games, fortune telling and visiting were enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours, after which lovely refreshments were served buffet style. Guests invited by Mrs. Houck to honor Mrs. Powe included: Mrs. Martha Dougherty, Miss Golda Beal, Miss Kathleen Turnbull, Mrs. Walter Dicksee, Mrs. Doris Peter, Miss Geraldine Eberly, Miss Marguerite Feuerstein, Miss Corinne Snyder, Mrs. Mebla Lowell, Mrs. Mary Lovell, Mrs. Florence H. Quant, Miss Harriet Hansen, Miss Margaret Neitze, Mrs. Mariellen Scott, Miss Olga Winther, Mrs. Vera Shulde, Mrs. Cecelia Beal, Mrs. Helene Acklin, Mrs. Ruth Smith, Mrs. Beulah Palmer, Mrs. Geraldine Sheehy, Miss Inez Crosta, Mrs. Hulda Peterson, Miss Eva Carlson, Mrs. Ellen Gordon, Mrs. Eleanore Eastling, Mrs. E. Kimmel, Miss G. Ellen Dick, Miss Margaret N. Johnson, Miss Huldah Gjevre, Mrs. Corinne Placek, Mrs. Rebecca Crockett and Miss Helen Casey.

Games and visiting were enjoyed during the afternoon, after which Pollyanna gifts were exchanged. The next meeting will be a twelve-thirty o'clock luncheon July 15th at the home of Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, "Pine Ridge", at which time Mrs. Wimberly, Mrs. C. B. Calkins, Mrs. John Marks, Jr., Mrs. Charles Mohr and Miss Mildred Marks will be hostesses.

Beautiful bouquets of roses were used about the rooms, while small bowls of pansies graced the serving tables, where covers were placed for: Mrs. J. A. Wood, Mrs. C. W. Cook, Mrs. Roy Good, Mrs. L. Connelly and Mrs. E. G. Cloake very graciously entertained the M. O. A. club at a delightful twelve-thirty o'clock luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Wood in the Howell apartments on South Jackson street.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS ON MONDAY EVENING

Pink deutzia sprays and clusters of rosebuds decorated the tall standards topped by white candles forming a semi-circle setting for the very beautiful and impressive installation of new officers ceremony used by the Junior Woman's club Monday evening at the clubhouse. Mrs. Gordon Stewart, a past president of the club, graciously acted as installing officer and presented beautiful corsages to outgoing and incoming officers. Throughout the entire ceremony, Miss Thelma Carter played softly on the piano.

Mrs. Perry Thiele and Mrs. Paul Smith were joint chairmen of the affair and the clubhouse was beautifully decorated with bouquets of pastel summer flowers, while the refreshment table was covered by an attractive lace cloth and decorated with a bowl of flowers and tall white tapers. Mrs. G. V. Wimberly poured punch.

The new officers include: Mrs. Adrian Bowen, president; Mrs. Fletcher Gardner, first vice-president; Mrs. Carl Wasson, second vice-president; Mrs. Robert Harris, treasurer; Mrs. J. E. Henbest, secretary; Mrs. Don Johnson, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Dorothy Crummett, one year director, and Mrs. Perry Thiele, two-year director.

Mrs. Bowen, new president, presented the past president's pin to Mrs. Clifford E. Smith, who was highly praised for her leadership of the club and a lovely gift was also presented to her from the retiring Council and new Council members. Mrs. Smith very graciously presented a lovely gift to Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, retiring advisor of the club, advisor which Miss Helen Casey was introduced as the new club advisor and was presented with a beautiful corsage. Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president of the Roseburg Women's club, was presented a corsage and was introduced by Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Hatfield gave a short talk and extended full co-operation between her club and the Junior group.

Umpqua S. & L. Declares Its 25th Annual Dividend

The directors of the Umpqua Savings and Loan association, at their regular monthly meeting, voted the 25th consecutive annual dividend that the association has paid. Dividend is at the rate of four per cent per annum and will be paid or credited to all accounts on June 30. The association will distribute more than $25,000 in dividends and reserves on June 30.

The directors also voted to add more than the usual amount to the association reserves, as it is the feeling of the board that due to present conditions the reserve should be substantially increased.

H. O. Pargeter, secretary-manager, reports that loans made during the year are 25 per cent greater than loans made for the year ending June 30, 1941. Loan applications, however, during the last two months have fallen off to some extent.

The association at its last meeting also authorized the purchase of $5,000 series G war bonds. Every employee of the association is buying bonds under the payroll deduction plan.

The annual meeting of the association will be held on Wednesday, June 24. This is the association's 25th anniversary. It expects to celebrate by holding a banquet for all its officers and employees.
