

Pitchers of Both Chicago Teams Lose Five Hitters

Cleveland, Cincinnati Score Victories; Boston Defeats Dodgers After 15 Batters

By JUDSON BAILEY (Associated Press Sports Writer) Only two five-hit ball games were pitched in the major leagues yesterday and neither of them was good enough to win. If you were to name one of the pitchers who had the misfortune to lose such a well-pitched game it's almost certain you would name lefty Edgar Smith of the Chicago White Sox on the first guess.

You would be right, of course. Everything happens to Cotton-Top and last night it was Lou Boudreau. The boy manager of the Indians personally collected four of the five hits made off Smith and one was Boudreau's first homer of the year.

That explains in a nutshell how Smith acquired his 12th setback of the season opposite two triumphs, although he has pitched consistently spectacular ball all year. Bagby, working on one day's rest, kept the Sox to seven safeties in gaining his ninth victory; but needed the aid of Chubby Dean.

The other losing five-hitter also was pitched by a Chicagoan in a night game—the Cubs' Bill Lee getting turned back at Cincinnati 4-1 by the Reds as Starr, the 36-year-old rookie, obtained his 11th victory against three defeats.

Mort Cooper of the St. Louis Cardinals matched Starr's 11-3 won and lost record by beating the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-2, but saw his streak of consecutive scoreless innings snapped at 32 and lost whatever chance he had of getting his fourth straight shut-out when Fletcher homered in the first inning.

Braves at Last Beat Dodgers. The Boston Braves stopped the Brooklyn Dodgers 4-3 for the first time in 15 games over a period stretching back into the 1941 season. Casey, the relief specialist, started on the mound for Brooklyn but was removed for a pinchhitter with the score tied at 3-all in the third. Rookie Les Weber gave up the winning run in the fifth.

Melton achieved his tenth triumph as the New York Giants nosed out the Phils 4-3 on a run which Melton himself singled home in the fourth.

The faltering New York Yankees saw their American league lead shrivel to 4-3 games as they divided a doubleheader at Philadelphia while the Boston Red Sox swept a pair of games from the Washington Senators.

The Yanks dropped their first tussle 8-5 for their third straight loss and 10th in 15 games. It was the first defeat of the year for Borowy and the first win for Besse of the A's. The champs at most booted the second, but rat-

The local chapter of the American Red Cross desires information concerning the present address of Mrs. Margaret M. Harris, who was reported to have resided at Oakland, Oregon, in 1930, it was announced today by Mrs. Ellen Post, executive secretary of the Red Cross chapter. A message has been received, she states, reporting that Herbert Harry Harris is reported missing in war action. His enlistment papers gave Mrs. Margaret M. Harris as next of kin, her last known address having been at Oakland. Any persons knowing of the whereabouts of Mrs. Harris or of any member of the family are asked to contact the local Red Cross office.

Cleanliness, Class Mark Circus of Russell Bros.

By L. K. P.

In spite of trouble experienced yesterday by Russell Bros. circus with trucks along the road and inability to get all of their menagerie and equipment to Roseburg, the performance in Roseburg last night was high class, and the capacity audience gave round after round of applause in appreciation.

Russell Bros. circus proved to be one of the cleanest and best entertainments ever seen here. There were no gambling devices of any sort and the management of the circus was complimented considerably for conduct of the entertainers and workers alike.

From the beginning of the inaugural procession to the grand finale of "The Skyrocketing Escalantes" the entire show held closest attention. Twenty-four displays were presented and in addition to specialty numbers by dogs, horses, elephants and seals and their respective trainers. The feature artists included: The four Acevedos, marvelously manipulating objects in mid-air; the Clarkonians, exemplifying unerring skill and faultless coordination; Alice Wong, in an Oriental novelty on the rolling globe; Paul Rogers, talented juvenile juggler; the Schaller trio, remarkable head and hand balancing; the DeWayne four, finest Risley experts of the present era; the aerial Alexandros, high jinks on the lofty horizontal bars in which superior gymnastics skill is combined with hilarious antics in the air. (This proved hilarious not only to children, but to every adult in the audience.) Miss Milonga, Miss Lorena and Miss Alice presented an aerial ballet; Smiley and his toppling tables; the Ortens and Acevedos, tight wire entertainers; Senoriat Esterita, trapeze entertainer; Chief Sugar Brown and his band of full-blooded Indians; Senor Marianno and Senor Maurice, slack wire performers; the three Oliveras specialty number; Whirlwind Teeterboard acrobats; the Bell Thazers; entertainment by the clowns and the show closed with the thrilling and breath-taking performance by the world-famous Escalante family, who presented the most difficult and beautiful trapeze performance to be seen here in many years. Eddie Woekener's widely-known band played throughout the entire performance. The Indian show and Texans entertainment followed the regular circus entertainment.

Following the entertainment a group of the entertainers and circus personnel were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bellows on Corey avenue.

Two S. P. Locomotives Derailed at Dunsuir

DUNSMUIR, Calif., July 1.—(AP)—Normal traffic operations were resumed on Southern Pacific's main line here today after workmen completed rebuilding of 300 feet of torn track destroyed when two huge mountain type locomotives were derailed yesterday at Cantara, six miles north of here.

Southern Pacific officials said no cause of the derailment has been determined yet.
