

MEET THE TOWN CRYER Every Monday

Like the acrobatic young lady on the left, you'll want to stand on your head about the news from McKean & Carstens! Again this week they're hoarding. This time it's ALUMINUM! I found shelves filled with all kinds of Great Northern Brand kitchen ware—everything from pots and pans to cookie cutters. Those boys down on Cass street seem to have had an eye on the future when they bought this stock. Get what you need while it lasts from McKean & Carstens.

THE TOWN CRYER

A whole truck load of flowers to Bob Harris at the Roseburg Pharmacy for being first again. This time he has "unspillable" cologne. This cute trick comes in a stick, rubs on, lasts ages, and is grand for sports wear. It's put out by Lucien Lelong with soap and powder to match all in "Balalaika." Delong's spiky new odor. Be first (after your Town Cryer) with the newest perfume styles from the Roseburg Pharmacy down by the Deer Creek bridge.

THE TOWN CRYER

Father's Day is long gone past, BUT—that guy to the left—remember him? Yeah, that's Pop and HE'S still around. He told me today the thing to mend his feelings. Wisfully he described Lawson's Schick shavers in four models, two colors, and two prices. With all Schick's new features—Whiskit, 2m hollow ground head, and a 2-year guarantee, Pop says that's just what he wants. Gift him with one from Lawson's to keep that shine in his eye.

THE TOWN CRYER

Pausing on Jackson St. north of the U. S. Nat'l. bank I was attracted by the colorful American flag display on this week's mags— You guessed it!—The Handy Stand. Besides a complete magazine stock, Tommy has a drink dispenser chock full of ice from which he will draw all the frosty buttermilk you can take for a nickel and Nesbit's orange for five pennies per glass. Join the Atkins "Nickel Pause" club up Jackson street way.

THE TOWN CRYER

At Fisher's things were in a hubub. Cornering one of the girls I asked for an explanation. Well, said she, wouldn't be excited with a new shipment of Loma Leed dresses just unpacked? Mystery solved, I investigated for myself and found Loma Leeds in print sheers, print jerseys, and rainbow plain colors, all cut with an eye to figure-flattery and style. Copies of model dresses, these Loma Leeds are a wonderful bargain, but don't take my word for it. Shop at Fisher's and see for yourself.

THE TOWN CRYER

With a nose for news as long as ever, I wandered into Marsters Drug store, 221 N. Jackson. Ernie Applewhite, proprietor, told me about one of the foot comforts Marsters specializes in. Mennen, famous maker of baby powder, makes a powder for babying your feet. You don't have to win races to catch Athlete's Foot. It's easy to pick up and easy to get rid of with Mennen's new powder. Quinsana, its deadly enemy. Those faithful feet of yours deserve a comfortable summer. Get Quinsana at Marsters.

THE TOWN CRYER

"There's not much news for you today, Cryer. I'm still repairing shoes," smiled Shorty when I stopped at his shop just south of Fisher's store. However, I did find a few facts of interest to you. Shorty can't stretch himself and doesn't want to, BUT—he CAN stretch your shoes and he DOES want to. He'll stretch 'em all over or in spots. It won't change the shape of your shoes a particle. "I give 'em the works, but they never show it." Thus said Shorty as I left his shop with a resolve to take those old brown pinchers to him tomorrow.

HOLIDAY AFFAIRS ENJOYED OVER FOURTH

DAYS CREEK, July 13.—Picnicking parties and dinners proved to be the popular diversions of the Fourth in this neighborhood. One of the more popular picnicking spots was the Shady grove at the mouth of Slim Water. One of the parties gathered there included: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sumner and daughter, Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Ulam, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Clark, daughter, Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. John Ulam, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clark of Albany, Miss Henrietta Ulam, Miss Hazel Welch, Sharon Clark, George Neuner of McMinnville, Walter Keck, Noel and Melyin Welch and Wilbur White.

H. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Weaver, and Mrs. Perry De Voë and daughter, Miss Jean, and son, Bobbie. A delightful family dinner was enjoyed at the Archie Ferguson home with covers being arranged for Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson, Mrs. Helen Ferguson, Aleck Ferguson of Marshfield, Lester Ferguson of Eugene, Norval Ferguson, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ferguson.

Smith and daughter, Miss Dora, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Duncan and daughters, Miss Jean, Norma and Margie, and sons, Ralph, Loren and Bob and R. A. Moore and sons, Leon and Jim. One of the parties enjoying the day at one of the pleasant spots on the upper river included Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Michaels and son, Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ulam and sons, Owen and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ulam and sons, Lynn and Clay and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ulam.

Tison and son, Jim, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Baker and son, Billie, and daughter, Miss Nellie Rae Austin, Miss Josephine Wright of Corvallis, Clarence Tison and daughter, Miss Beverly and son, Vernon, and Miss Carla Ann Godfrey of Phoenix, Harry Wright and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, and their daughters, Miss Margie and Miss Maxine. They were joined late in the afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farmer of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gaulke and son, Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Snyder and daughter, Barbara, and son, Richard, and Miss Alice May Welch enjoyed a picnic on Stinger Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Worthington and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Worthington and daughter, Miss Beverly and son, Junior, went to Azelea where they joined Mr. and Mrs. Ora Condray and other relatives for the day.

Another week passed with no romantic prospects but never losing hope, I chose Coen's Lbr. Co. for my house-shopping—when and IF. Down there they showed me kitchen units such as I've dreamed of. With red, white and blue color schemes cleverly designed sink boards, metal lined drawers, and lots of shelf space these kitchen units are practically ready to make my home theirs. I left Coen's with grim purpose and the hunt is on! I care not who the man is... a red, white and blue kitchen from Coen's is my goal.

THE TOWN CRYER

Harold Horn is really "in" with me. Ever since the other day when I stopped at Horn's Super-Cream shop he's been on my good list. He gave me the most sumptuous concoction I ever indulged in—a freezer-fresh frosted malt sundae. I liked it so well that he gave me a frosted malt ice cream cone to take out with me. Harold says I can get these treats almost any time 'cause he stays open late most nights down at 328 N. Jackson. You can bet that he's not seen the last of me. He says he hopes you'll come in, too, one of these days. Tah, tah, me hearties, till Mon. rolls 'round again.
