Sergeant Paul Morgan of the state police reported that Calvert while residing at Drain, was alleged to have placed a mortgage on a team of horses and to have lost the team to a finance company through non-payment of pany through non-payment of the loan. The horses were sold by the finance company to W. C. Henderer, Morgan stated, and it is alleged that Calvert removed the animals from Henderer's pas-ture and took them to his own

Local Fire Chief Posts Top Record

Glenn Taylor, who recently was elected city fire chief, is leading the fire chiefs of the state in the number of inspections and re-movals of fire hazards, according to E. R. Campbell, deputy state fire marshal, who was in Roseburg today on a trip of inspec-tion. Since assuming the office of fire chief, Mr. Campbell stat-ed, Taylor has devoted much time to the removal of fire hazards. A decided reduction in the number of fires should be the result Campbell said.

. Campbell recently returned from Seattle where he spent ten days attending a school con-ducted by army officers from Edgewood arsenal, where fire-men, policemen and civilian defense workers receive an inten-sive course in combatting fires, bombs, gases, etc.

Oregon Slayer, Facing Death, Gets Rehearing

SALEM, July 15-(AP)-The Oregon supreme court ordered a rehearing yesterday for Septem-ber 8 of the first degree murder appeal of William H. Wallace, sentenced to death for the slaying in Portland last August of Ben Finkell, 32.

The court, which heard the appeal three weeks ago, gave no reason for the rehearing. Wal-lace's appeal is based on the cir-cuit's refusal to let him change his plea to insanity after the

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The U. S. Marine Corps and the Army too, for that matter, effective ly uses the 50-caliber Anti-aircraft machine gun either mounted or on a mobile base. These rapid-firing guns literally eat up the ammunition and a thousand rounds of ammunition costs about $240.00

These guns are used to rake low-flying airplanes. Since they fire about 600 shells per minute, that $240 worth of ammunition lasts a little longer than two minutes. So we need thousands of dollars in War Bond sales to furnish our Boys with ammunition for the tools of war. Your War Bond purchases every pay day will buy it. ## Men Crowned as Beauty Queens In Bond Sales Drive

PORTLAND, July 15 .-- (AP)-A couple of hard hat men were crowned queens of beauty yester day in the latest and liveliest antics at the Albina Engine & Machine works shipyard.

First Curly Goguen, announced winner of the queen contest, donned the dainty robes of queen hood. Then, because of dissension over his election, he was to retire in favor of runner-up Pigsfeet

Goguen, slightly confused, adanced boldly.

"I secede," he announced in stentorian voice. The crowd roar-

"You mean abdicate," came hisper. "I quit," shouted Goguen, and egan stripping off the robes.

He stripped right down to a point short of indecency and Moore, robed as queen, stepped up to the throne, wearing a crown of steel scrap.

With the abdication, good will returned, and so ended a contest in which workers bought war bonds and stamps as votes and paraded behind banners, cheer leaders and brass bands.

Despite the controversy over a late $50,000 bond purchase that made Goguen the announced winner, the contest was a success.

Bond sales totaled $137,000, an average of $75 a man, and com-pany officials said morale was boosted so much that production increased materially.
