Brooklyn Downs Cubs in Renewal Of Rough Tactics

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Bad blood has been flowing between the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cubs for two or more years in one of the most vicious feuds in baseball annals and the situation is getting stormier.

Yesterday the boys were so busy throwing bean balls at each other they almost forgot the ball game, but the Dodgers, operating in their element, captured a 10-5 verdict from the confused Cubs, who made five errors and used five pitchers to give 13 hits.

This encounter dwarfed other developments of the day in the major leagues, although Laabs of the St. Louis Browns, currently on a batting spree, attracted attention at Philadelphia by driving in five runs as the Browns beat the Athletics, 7-4, in a night game. He hit a homer, his 13th of the year, with the bases loaded in the second inning and then in the third frame lined to the corner of center field and was thrown out at the plate trying to get four bases on it.

Yankees Stretch Lead.

The New York Yankees extended their American league lead to 6½ games by scoring their second straight shutout, 4-0, against the Cleveland Indians on the four-hit hurling of Donald. Hassett made three hits and Joe DiMaggio stretched his modest hitting streak to 12 games.

The Boston Red Sox split with the Chicago White Sox. Hughson beat unlucky Ed Smith in the opener, 10-1, for Smith's 15th setback. Then the Chisox took the nightcap, 11-6, although Williams hit his 19th homer.

Washington nosed out the Detroit Tigers, 4-3, in 11 innings.

Sewell pitched six-hit ball and Vince DiMaggio hit a three-run double to spark Pittsburgh to a 6-2 triumph over the New York Giants. The St. Louis Cardinals swept a doubleheader from the Phils, 7-3 and 9-4.

Cincinnati and the Boston Braves divided their double bill, with Walters winning the opener for the Reds, 6-2, on five-hit pitching and Salvo retaliating with a seven-hit performance as the Braves bagged the second game, 7-2.

Beavers Defeat Oaks 3rd Straight; Turpin Wins 15th

(By The Associated Press)

The Portland Beavers continued their determined efforts to pull themselves out of the Pacific coast baseball league cellar last night and handed the Oakland Oaks their third straight lacing, 4-2.

The game, a seven-inning affair intended to be the first half of a doubleheader, was featured by two homers, Gill hitting the round-tripper for Portland and Westlake for Oakland. The second game was called after the second inning.

The Beavers converted four hits into three runs in the second inning to sew up the game, while limiting the Oaks to single tallies in the second and fourth frames. The game was played at Portland.

At Seattle, rookie chucker Budnick scored his third straight shutout over Hollywood in less than two weeks with a 3 to 0 nightcap victory after his teammate Hal Turpin won the opener, 2 to 1.

Turpin yielded eight hits for his 15th victory of the season in besting Bittner in the opener.

Angels Blast Sactos

Los Angeles batsmen are threatening to blast the Sacramento Solons out of the top spot in Pacific coast league baseball and the scene is set for the explosion tonight.

The Angels, who lead the league in basehits, slammed out 15 safeties including two home runs to wallop the Solons, 8 to 4, last night and edge within a half-game of the pacesetters.

Sacramento garnered 11 hits off Prim, who out-pitched four Soron chuckers. Donnelly was charged with the loss after he was removed in the third with a record of 8 hits and 6 runs against him.

There was also some heavy-hitting at San Francisco where the San Diego Padres won, 6 to 4, from the Seals in ten innings.

Stutz, who hurled 7 innings, allowed the Padres four runs on ten hits and two walks. Then his reliefer, Epperly, yielded the other two San Diego tallies on four hits and a base on balls, to be charged with the loss.

The Seals pounded Dilbeck and Brown for 11 safeties.

Visiting Relatives—Mrs. Rex Mack, of Portland, is visiting relatives and friends in this city and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Arzner, at Myrtle Creek.

Whirlaway Heads For Record Total In Turf Earnings

BOSTON, July 16.—(AP)—A stretch-running flash of lightning known as Whirlaway today loomed as the first, half-million-dollar winning prospect in the history of the turf.

Fresh from his record smashing triumph yesterday in the Massachusetts $50,000-added handicap, Whirly was pointed today by his trainer, Ben Jones, for the $25,000 added Arlington handicap at Chicago's Arlington park on August 1.

The smashing victory that Whirlaway, owned by Warren Wright, scored in the Suffolk Downs feature boosted the horse's winnings to $454,366—or $16,636 more than the previous top earnings mark, amassed by Seabiscuit.

Giving every indication that he must be considered as one of the top handicap performers of all time, Whirly ran a field of six speedy opponents into the earth in almost nonchalant fashion under a smart ride by Georgie Woolf.

New Englanders, seeing "Mr. Bigtail" for the first time, still were pop-eyed today at the blaze of speed the champion turned on as he headed for the wire to win by about two and a half lengths.

He flashed across the wire in 1:48 1-5 to crack the track record for the mile and one-eighth distance, previously held by War Relic, by two-fifths of a second.

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

NUMBER 52 ★ How to save time and trouble in shopping ★ A list of money-saving foods to check ★ A timely story with a moral

How to save time by saving money

Not only does Safeway save you money through low prices on every item every day, but saves you time, too. For Safeway stores are conveniently located. And too, at Safeway all your food needs are under one roof—all plainly displayed and arranged to save you more steps. Save time by saving money at Safeway.

This is a lesson in shopping that's worth reading

Because the war has made "time" more precious than ever before, it has become practically a patriotic duty to streamline our daily schedules as much as possible. This means our food buying habits must change. For one of the best ways to save time is to cut shopping trips down by planning menus and market lists a week in advance. These suggestions from the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau should help you in your planning.

Perishability is the best guide for dividing off your purchases. Staples like flour, salt, potatoes, canned and packaged goods can be bought weeks in advance. It's wise to replace them as soon as they're used, so you won't be caught short and, too, so you won't have to carry huge armloads at the end of the week.

Extra-heavy purchases can be saved for times when you'll have your car or can share a neighbor's, lightening your bundles on other days. And another thing, enough citrus fruits, bacon, coffee, butter, and eggs can be bought all in one trip to last a week or more. With these out of the way early in the week, you'll need to think only about buying perishable foods.

Foods that will keep 3 to 4 days without spoiling include most meats; vegetables like carrots, turnips, beets, parsnips, squash, egg plant, corn, tomatoes; most under-ripe fruits and the like. Buying these foods in advance saves extra shopping trips.

Foods that will keep 3 to 4 days without spoiling include most meats; vegetables like carrots, turnips, beets, parsnips, squash, egg plant, corn, tomatoes; most under-ripe fruits and the like. Buying these foods in advance saves extra shopping trips.

The most perishable foods, those which will keep only a day or two, are fresh green and leafy vegetables; ripe fresh fruits; fresh fish, chicken, and ground meats; fresh dairy products; bread, cake, pastry.

To get your money's worth in vitamins and minerals, use fresh leafy and green vegetables the same day you buy them. As soon as you get them home, wash them quickly in a small amount of water, drain, and keep them in a covered container in the refrigerator until just ready to use. Don't pare or cut the vegetables until just time to cook or serve. Exposure to warm air, soaking in water, and cutting vegetables all tend to cause loss of vitamins and minerals.
