

Boston Defeats Chicago Cubs In 17-Inning Battle

By JUDSON BAILEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

That 17 inning struggle of the Braves and Chicago Cubs yesterday was bound to happen. It wasn't quite as historical as the 26-inning 1-1 tie between the Braves and Brooklyn in 1920, the most extended game in National league records, or the 20-inning battle with the Dodgers in 1940 which took five hours and 19 minutes to play—longest time of game in major league history.

But it was the longest game this season and the Braves won 4-3 with a unique finish. The Braves tied the score in the eighth with two runs and after eight more scoreless stanzas they loaded the bases with none out in the 17th on three successive bunts. Then Cooney stepped to the plate and rapped a single to finish the fracas four hours and 17 minutes after it started.

Dodgers, Cards Win
While this was going on the Brooklyn Dodgers curbed the Cincinnati Reds 8-4 with 12 hits in six innings against Derringer. Allen limited the Reds to half a dozen blows.

The St. Louis Cardinals kept the Dodgers from increasing their National league lead, however, by bowling over the Philadelphia Phils 6-1, with Howard Krist pitching six-hit ball and his teammates battling three pitchers for a dozen safeties.

Three home runs and Maynard's two-run pinch single in the eighth inning gave Hubbell and the New York Giants a 6-5 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates in a game from which manager Frank Frisch of the Pirates was banished in the fifth inning.

Yanks Win 10th in Row
The New York Yankees extended their winning streak to ten games and Joe Dimaggio stretched his hitting string to 18 games in an 8-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians. Gomez received credit for the victory, his fifth, although Murphy worked the last three frames.

The Boston Red Sox dropped a 10-inning 5-4 decision to Chicago to let the Yanks slip another game ahead. Doerr hit his 12th homer, a double and two singles and Ted Williams made three hits, but these proved insufficient.

The St. Louis Browns were held to four hits by Harris and Marchildon but beat the Philadelphia Athletics 4-3 on Judnich's three-run homer in the first inning and a roundtripper by Cliff in the second.

The Detroit Tigers broke Buck Newsom's spell with a 6-4 triumph over the Washington Senators on the five-hit hurling of White.

18-Point Star Looms For Idaho Grandmother

BOISE, IDAHO, July 22—(AP)—If the male relatives of Mrs. Mattie Malmstrom of Boise carry out their intentions of joining the nation's armed forces, she will merit an 18-point star by September.

Two sons, Willis K. and Joseph, both veterans of the first World war, already are in the service, as are four grandsons.

Planning to sign up soon are five other sons, two grandsons

Rainiers Climb to 3rd Place by Win Over Beavers, 3-2

(By the Associated Press)

The Seattle Rainiers are far off the baseball form that won them three Pacific Coast league pennants, but they are riding along in third place today—in a good spot for a mid-season rally.

Losses by San Francisco and San Diego last night helped the Rainiers into the enviable upper-division spot as Seattle edged out the last-place Portland club, 3 to 2.

Ten timely safeties off Cohen, Beaver moundsman, together with a six-hit pitching effort by Barrett, made the close win for the Rainiers, who played flawless ball and turned in three double plays.

Oakland dumped the Seals, 6 to 1, by clouting Gibson for six hits and all their tallies in the opening frame. Lien, southpaw, recently acquired from Tacoma of the Western International league, performed like a veteran as he took over in the second and held the Oaks to two hits for the rest of the game.

Sacramento went ten innings to best San Diego, 5 to 4. The game ended as Hebert, Padre chucker, lost control to walk two batters in the tenth and gave over to Brown who walked another batter and then tossed up the final blow, a single by Serafini.

Los Angeles, leading the second-place Solons by three games, ran amok at Hollywood to blank the Stars 11 to 0 and extend the Angel win streak to 13 games.
