Four new electric sewing machines have been added to the equipment in the sewing room. The room is located on the north side of the building and is reported to be as cool as most any place in town during the hot weather. A large shipment of goods has been received by the Red Cross here and the women of this city and county are endeavoring to have the sewing completed as quickly and efficiently as possible. THE TOWN CRYER

With Walter and Ethel Fisher on the absent list from their department store on Jackson I decided to go on the wander and do my own diggin' this week. Other than the addition of Mrs. Pemberton to the sales staff I saw something else new—bolts upon bolts of new fall woolen yard goods. If you're planning on doing a bit of sewing on the fall wardrobe you'd better bolt a little, too—bolt right down and make a selection or two from a host of lovely autumn colors while the gettin's good. Wool's on Uncle Sam's shortage list, you know.

THE TOWN CRYER

According to Ernie Applewhite at Marts Drug Store, about the most dangerous place to live in the world is at home! Samazin', but true (he says). About 50% of all accidents happen at home, sweet home. Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home—for accidents to happen. This all leads up to the fact that Ernie has first aid and surgical supplies for everything from flea bite to the finger you may pinch in the door any minute now. Frankly, though, Ernie's got a better than swell stock of first aid supplies. The wise homemaker will always "Be Prepared." Dry stuff—but it's the truth.

THE TOWN CRYER

The Roseburg Pharmacy is first again! This time it's soap... gift soaps... pure castile... the cutest shapes I ever laid my (slightly sore) eyes on. All of them are stories. There's Sissy & Sue, the soap twins, Piggy-Wiggy-Woo, Soapy Sailor, the Draftee (he's a Q-T), Swan Song, and Puppy Love. They're fun for anyone from junior to grandma (or pa). And now, while you work your self up into a lather the Cryer will take leave to be on hand next week with more of the same.

THE TOWN CRYER

My flicker's in pretty good shape, I think (I hope), but I must admit that my pulse jumped ten points when Henry Carstens said, "It's CURTAINS this week Cryer." In my language "curtains" means the kick-off, the last goodbye, the swan song. But alas and alack, as the cells in the old cerebrum started clicking I awakened to the fact that McKean and Carstens wanted me to tell you about their "window dresses," that is, CURTAINS. They're fluffy pastel curtains, square shaped kitchen curtains, and Quaker lace will be open to members only and following the dinner, the group will hear Mrs. Horsfall give a talk on the state and national D. A. R. conventions.
