Yum! It's Salad Time—

Local grocers are cooperating with the Best Foods company this week as they feature "Salad Time," an annual event stressing the importance of tempting vegetable salads in the daily diet. Grocers featuring Best Foods mayonnaise and dressing are named in an advertisement elsewhere in today's News-Review.

This year it's "Vitamins for Victory" and budget wise—health wise housewives will be serving plenty of garden fresh vegetables that are now both plentiful and economical. All grocers have available or can secure for their customers a free copy of the "Vitamins for Victory" menu planner. In this booklet are listed many new and interesting recipes for salads such as the one presented below. Here is a popular recipe for vegetable potato salad:

- 2 cups cooked potatoes, cubed
- 1 cup celery, sliced
- 1 cup radishes, sliced
- 1 cup string beans
- 2 teaspoons onion, chopped
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon pepper
- 1 cup peas, cooked
- Lettuce or salad greens
- 1 cup Best Foods real mayonnaise

(1) Lightly toss together potatoes, string beans, peas, celery, radishes, onion and seasonings with mayonnaise. (2) Serve on lettuce or salad greens. (3) Place in refrigerator to absorb the superb flavor of mayonnaise. Yield: 6 servings.
