Aleutians Must Be Rid of Japs, Senator Asserts

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Japanese occupation of the outer Aleutians is a "direct threat to this country," say Senator A. B. Chandler of Kentucky, "and whatever it takes, we must get those fellows off those islands."

Chandler is chairman of a military affairs subcommittee which will leave for Alaska shortly to examine the situation there.

"This is no junk or lark," Chandler told newsmen. "We're going up there to find out what's going on."

"Occupation by the enemy of even undefended islands constitutes a direct threat to this country," he said. "If the Japs took Dutch Harbor we'd be in real danger."

"We want to find out how that inland roadway is progressing, and all about the morale of civilians and troops. People all over the country are more alarmed about the Aleutian situation than they have been about any other one phase of the war."
