American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. F. L. CRITTENDEN

Mrs. C. E. Roselund, president of the Umpqua Unit of the American Legion auxiliary, tells me we are 400 sweaters short in our quota of army and navy sweaters. She says this is a government order and that the yarn may be secured at the Red Cross rooms over the U. S. National bank.

Wherever that service son of yours is in camp in the United States, there is a Unit of the American Legion auxiliary. Members of this Unit are eager to do whatever they can to make his training days more enjoyable. If you will send your son's name and address to Mrs. Gwendolyn MacDonnell, national secretary, 777 N. Meridian st., Indianapolis, Ind., she will communicate this

Yankees Avenge Defeat by Giants In Pee-Wee Series

The Yankees gained revenge on their bitter rivals, The Giants, in the second game of the little World Series being played by the Roseburg Pee-Wee softballers, taking the contest by a score of 6 to 4, thus giving each team one game in the five-game series. In the previous encounter the Giants won 13 to 3.

Playing heads-up ball and taking advantage of every break, the Yankees used four hits in making six runs, while the Giants, although they amassed the total of 10 hits were able to convert only four runs. Each team committed only two errors.

For the losers, three-base hits were gathered by Baker, Bashford and Gerretsen while James hit a home run far into center field. Baker also was the leading hitter for the Giants, getting three hits in as many times at bat.

For the winning Yankees, Thiesen was the big stick getting two of the four hits allowed by Bashford, one being a two-bagger. Bashford, however, lacked control and issued seven walks, which proved the deciding factor in the fray.

Batteries were Bashford and Smith for the Giants and Young and Baird for the Yankees. Included in the lineups were Yankees: DeBernardi, Baird, Britton, Young, Nichols, Thiesen, Boyer, Harrison, Strumbo, Sorenson, Primrose, and Strickling; Giants: Sanders, H. Strumbo, Groves, James, Hendricks, Baker, Gerretsen, Moore, Henninger, Bashford, Smith, Haynes, Walton, J. Strickling.

There will be an exhibition game between these two teams Sunday, starting at 1 p. m., preceding the USO benefit game between the Roseburg and Cottage Grove teams under sponsorship of the local Lions club.

Quiz Program Provides Rotary Entertainment

A specially prepared quiz program served as entertainment for the regular meeting of the Roseburg Rotary club yesterday. The quiz, prepared by Carlos Page, program chairman, was a combination spelling bee and test of knowledge of geography. Although a score was kept, it was difficult, the chairman said, to say exactly which side actually won.

All-Stars Rely On 2 Phases For Softball Victory

The Roseburg All-Stars softball team is depending upon tight pitching and outfield support to break the undefeated record of the Cottage Grove Quality Market in the USO benefit game to be played here Sunday.

The Cottage Grove team has a most impressive line-up of hitters, and if Roseburg is able to win the game it will be by strong defensive play.

George Dugan, first baseman of the visiting team, has a batting average of .520 for the season. Tom Cox, third baseman, is hitting at a .350 clip, closely followed by Alton Wheeler, catcher, with .348; John Gallo, outfielder, .346; Gene Smith, second baseman, .333, and Howard Harpole, outfielder, .304.

Other members of the Cottage Grove squad include Curtis French, shortstop; Dale Gates, center field; Herah Tracy, left field; Perrin Hovker, pitcher; Frank Jacobs, utility pitcher and infielder; Johnny Minor, utility infielder, and Darrell Sarff, utility outfielder and pitcher.

The Cottage Grove team, which recently won from Roseburg in a night game on the Cottage Grove field, will play at Finlay field Sunday, the game being scheduled for 2:30 p. m. The contest is sponsored by the local Lions club and all proceeds will go to the USO.
