POET'S CORNER

A WAY TO PRAY
By INA L. BACH
You just think you never pray—
Lead your life a certain way.
Must be always hard as nails
Deeming all as fairy tales.

How about the lift this morn.
To the fellow in the storm.
You are guilty of a hundred deeds
In easing loads of those in need.

Favors are the prayers unsaid
Accepted from above instead—
Of senseless mumbblings spun by rote
With less meaning than a quote.

Alimony Paid to Ex-Wife, Japanese, Raises Issue
SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Joseph H. Quinn, 31, U. S. navy fire controlman on duty on an east coast-based war vessel, and divorced from a Japanese wife he married in Tijuana, Mex., in 1938, has placed a final problem before the district attorney here.

Quinn is making alimony payments to his former wife, now in the Santa Anita reformation center, and wants to know if he should continue to remit.
Two children were born to the couple and a condition of the divorce was that Quinn contribute $25 monthly for their support.
"What I want to know," he wrote local officials, "do I have to fight 'em (the Japs) and support them at the same time?"
Quinn has been remitting regularly through the probation department. The district attorney's office said it probably will recommend that payments be continued for the duration or until the children are released.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa.—Out from the dollar day shopping crowd around the shoe counter limped two women, each holding one shoe—mates.
Neither would give up her share of the bargain, and both sat down to wait.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

One of the mysteries of Christian history is the power by which men of ordinary gifts have achieved extraordinary things. The New Testament is the greatest of books and the church the greatest of institutions, but the men who wrote the one and founded the other were for the most part ordinary men. The man called Andrew, first among those who left all and followed Jesus is an example of the extraordinary use of an ordinary man. His name is an encouragement and a challenge to us all. Jesus once told a story about a man whose employer had given him a sum of money to invest. It was a small sum. Others had been given more, and he did nothing with it. When the time came for an accounting he had made no profit and his master blamed him with bitter words. Jesus was not a business man however, and His interest was not in cash, but in character. The five talent man and the two talent man invested their trust funds shrewdly and courageously. The one talent man thought that, being poorly endowed, he need not take a risk or make an effort. The point of the story is the responsibility of ordinary people. In these days we must depend on the one-talent man. Great ability, heroism and work may do much, but they can do nothing without the help of the ordinary man and woman. They are the warp and woof of life. Amen.
