American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. F. L. CRITTENDEN

Mrs. V. J. Mcclili, chairman of the national and state defense, has asked me to announce that she is to make a report every month to the state of the war work the auxiliary women are doing. For example, you are to let her learn direct through the meetings or by telephone, of every hour or every garment you have made and our Unit gets credit.

Mrs. Ned Dixon is state chair-man of the Child Welfare and is assisted by Mrs. Joe Johnson, unit chairman.

We are still short on our quota of sweaters and there is an abun-dance of yarn at the Red Cross rooms.

Mrs. Roy Bellows and Mrs. Velle Broadway are chairmen of the Canteen.

If you are doing Motor Corps filter board or home nursing, you cannot undertake the canteen work, also you must have had the nutrition course to take Can-teen.

Mrs. J. R. Wharton is chair-man of Home Nursing. The Red Cross is endeavoring to put this course in high school for junior and senior girls.

If anyone is interested in filter board work they may apply at the armory.

I am advised that the Red Cross Motor corps and the Dou-glas county civilian defense Motor corps are one and the same. It consists of 45 members, many of whom are auxiliary members, with branches in Heedport, Glendale and Sutherland. They have completed standard and ad-vanced first aid, motor mechan-ics, map reading, gas defense, convoy driving and military drill.

Mrs. Harris Ellsworth is chair-man of the Motor corps.

Word has been received that Mrs. L. A. Dillard and her family are pleasantly established at Camp Cook in the vicinity of Santa Maria, Calif.

Mrs. Irvin Riegel is back from Eugene, where she has been visit-ing her daughter and new grand-son. While in Eugene, she attend-ed an auxiliary picnic.

Helen Lunis, of Eugene, whom many of the women know, has joined the WAAC and is being sent to Des Moines, Iowa, for officers training. She has a son in the navy and her husband is in the army.

Miss Margaret Johnson, libran-ian at the Facility, has been called to Spokane by the death of her father.

Mrs. J. E. Johnson, child wel-fare chairman, is spending a month vacationing in Portland.

Here From Portland—Miss Betty Raish, of Portland, is spend-ing a few days in this city visit-ing friends. She recently moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Raish, and her sisters, Velda Mae and Naomi, to Port-land from this city.

FORMER GLENDALE GIRL ENTERTAINED

GLENDALE, Aug. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson were enter-tained in Salem recently, by Com-mander and Mrs. Wallace Whar-ton. Mrs. Wilson will be re-membered by many friends here as the former Dorothy Illidge. Mr. Wilson is being transferred to New York City from Washing-ton where he is with the Govern-ment Information Bureau. Both are graduates of the University of Oregon. While in Washington Mrs. Wilson taught art and drama classes and also did special work in nutrition. Because of her contribution in this work, at the expense of the government she was sent to the Virginia Poly-technic Institute.
